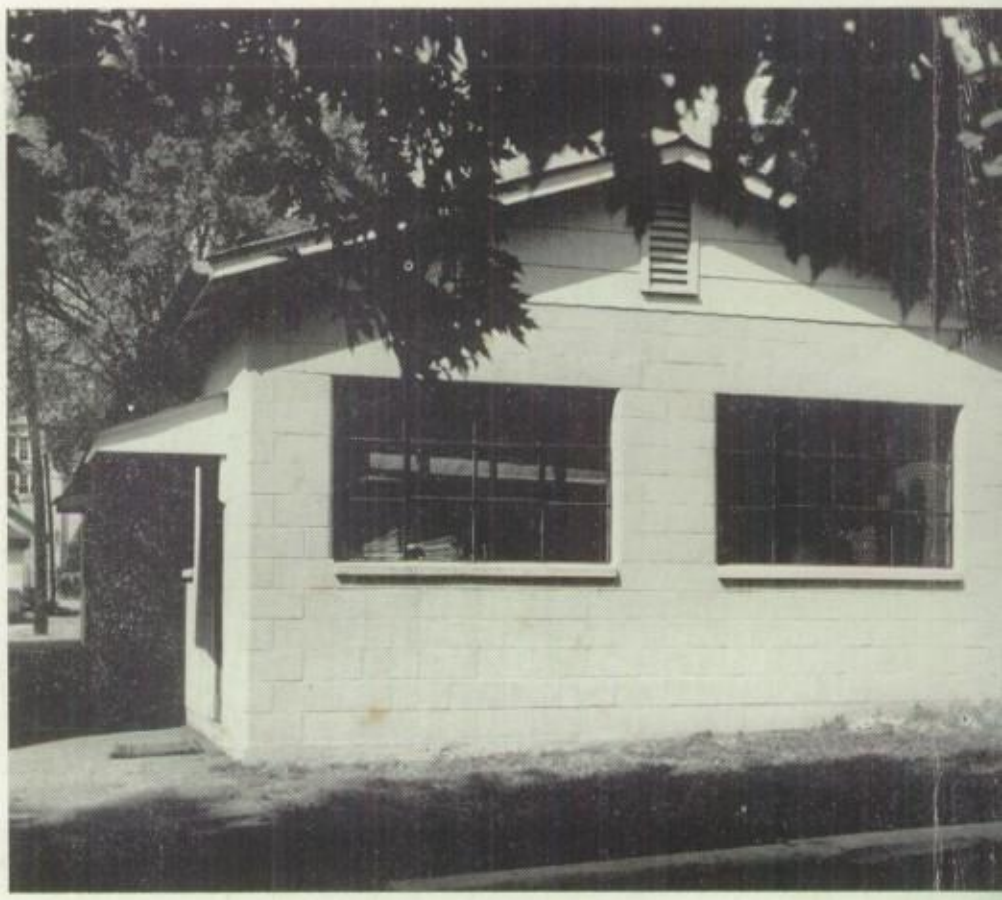
NEW ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL

NEW ALBANY, INDIANA

MAIN BUILDING

CORA MARTIN ANNEX



AGRICULTURE BUILDING

MECHANIC ARTS BUILDING

This year the New Albany High School added another building to its campus. It is the Mechanic Arts building. All of the vocational courses and the band moved in this past fall.

Last summer the main building had a lot of remodeling done, with the addition of several classrooms in space formerly occupied by the shops. Many of the existing classrooms were repainted, and extra rooms were added for vocal music and radio.

The gymnasium floor was refinished and new ticket booths were erected. The offices were completely remodeled and a new office was added.

This physical growth is just a part of the expansion that must continue to take place in order to house our growing student body.

The Faculty and Classes Section will be found on pages twelve through twenty-three.

Norma Swallow and Jane Dickman did a delightful dance at this year's Christmas Concert. Norma danced the part of a dainty doll and Jane danced the part of an awkward toy bear.

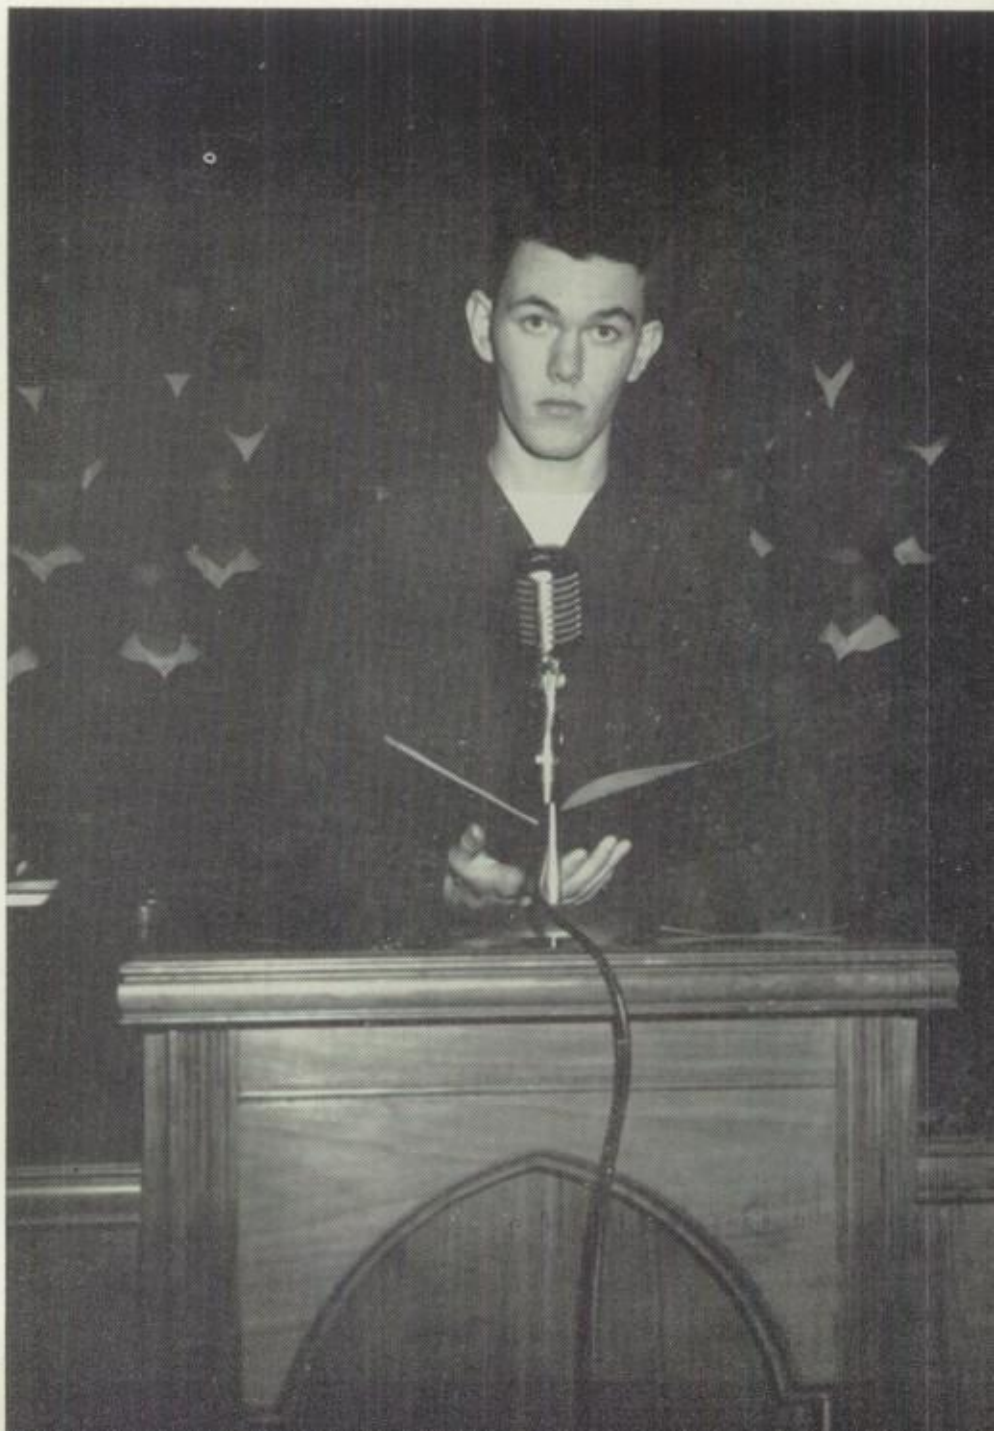
Among the many services provided by the NAHS Radio Workshop was the coverage of the city election.



The Nite Hawks, a student organized band, are seen playing at one of their many engagements at NAHS this year.

This mysterious Mexican is one of the many odd-looking creatures who attended the Art Club's annual Halloween party.

The Activities Section will be found on pages twenty-four through ninety-five.

The senior class of 382 members is seated at the Class Day program.

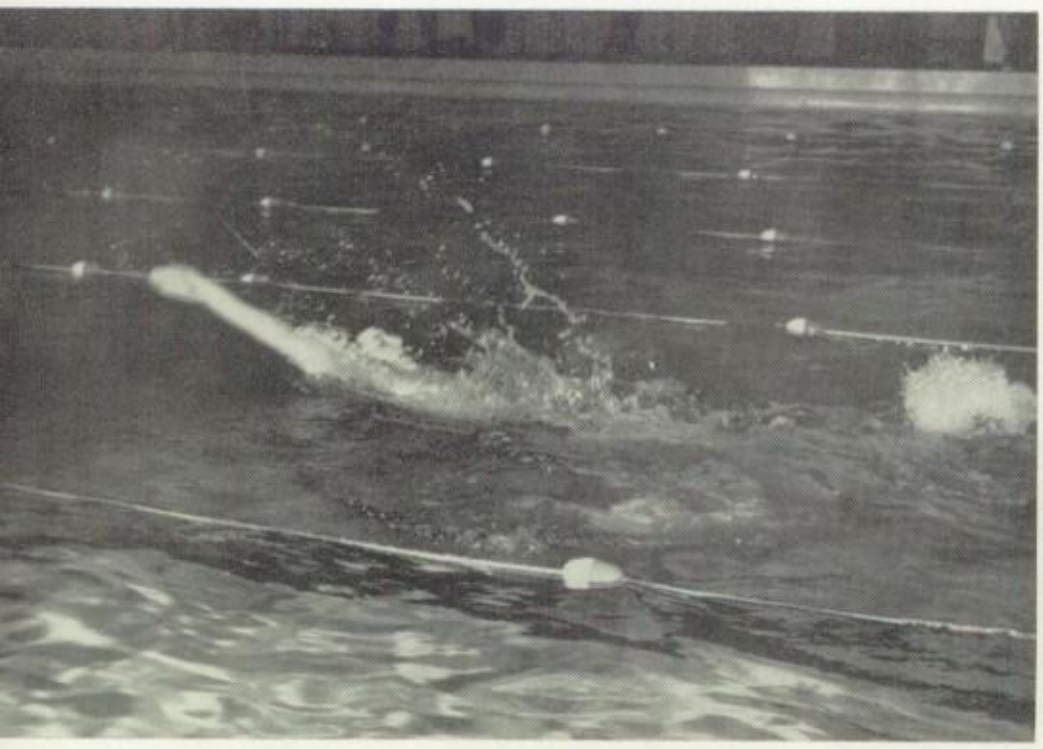
Susie Walker serenades members of the chorus line at a practice for the senior variety show.

Joe Voyles, one of six top ranking seniors, bestows the Mantle of Knowledge upon Elizabeth Davis, one of four top ranking juniors.

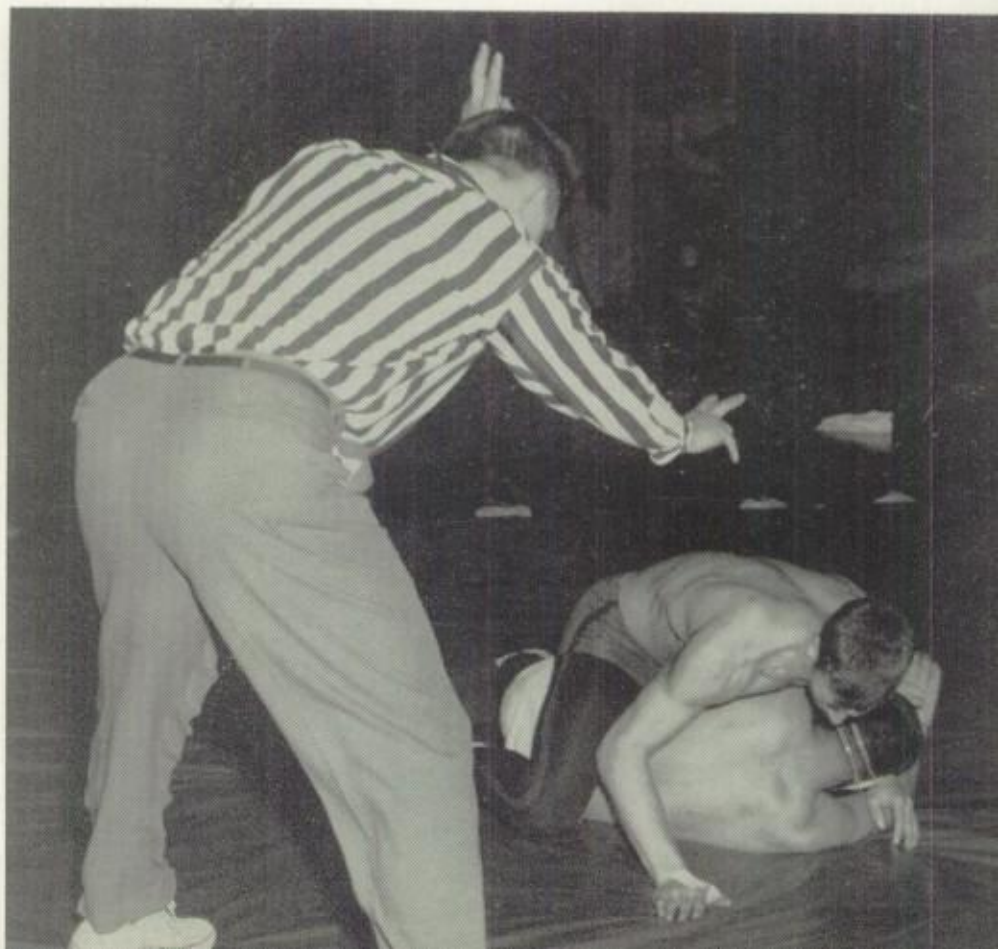
The Senior Section will be found on pages ninety-six through one hundred twenty-three.

A Bulldog fast-break ends in two points as Dave Chastain scores.

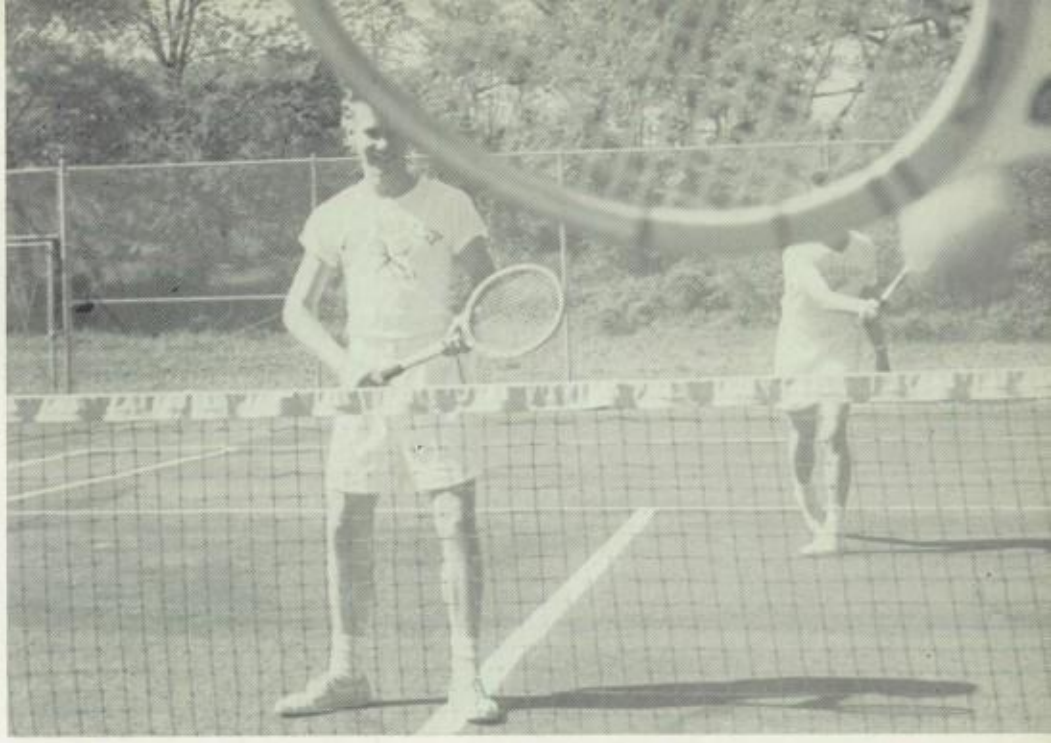


Daily practices were held by the swimming team at the new Junior High pool.

Kenneth Smith referees a wrestling match.



Sally Hess looks over the schedule prior to the past football season.

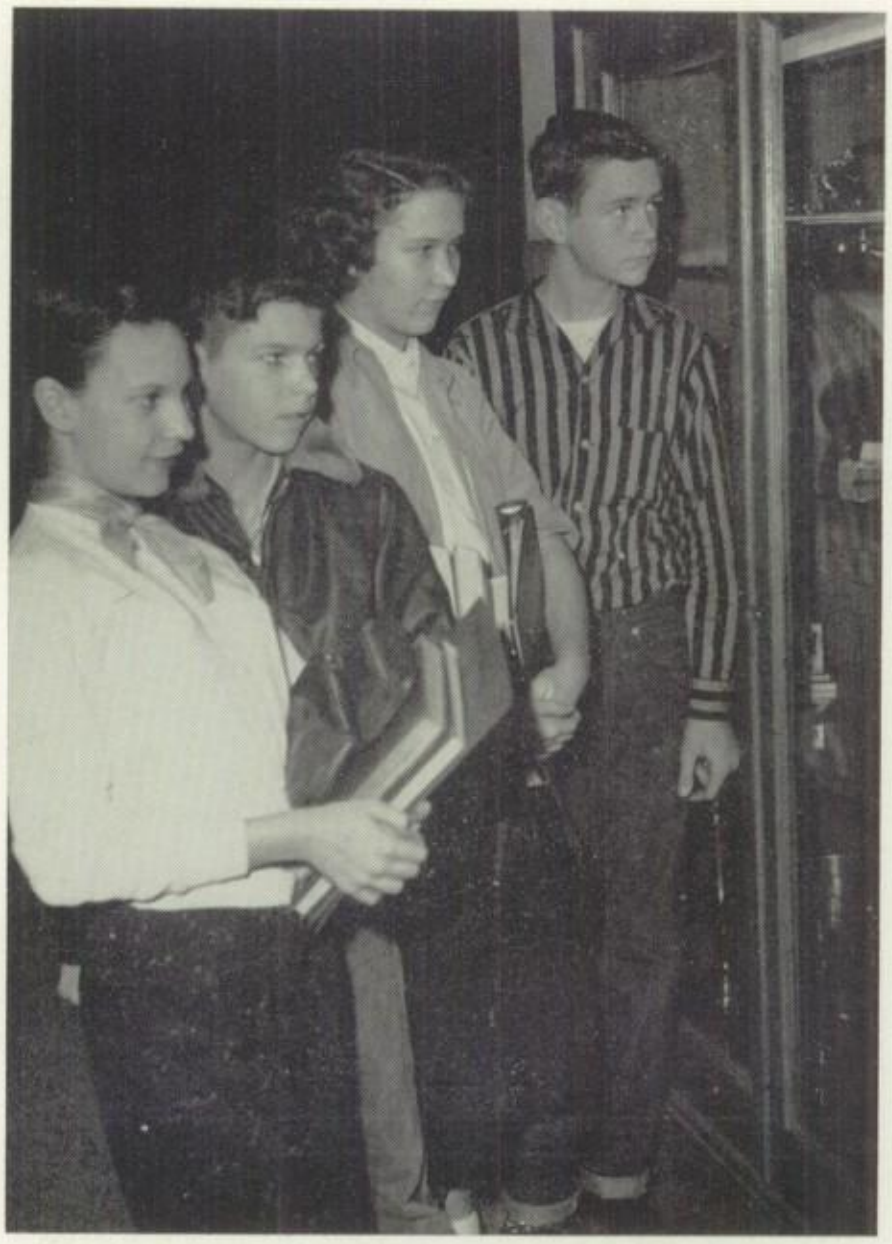


A ball is returned by a New Albany player in a doubles tennis match.

Jerry Harrison clears the hurdles as he adds more points to a New Albany victory.

The Sports Section will be found on pages one hundred twenty-four through one hundred fifty-seven.

This year's junior class officers are Larry Evans, vice president; Steve Von Allmen, president; Gerry Lewis, treasurer; and Barbara Morgan, secretary.



Admiring the awards in the trophy case between periods are Shirley Sutton, Linville Smith, Kathy Strong, and Edward Sturgeon.

The Spring Cotillion, the freshman-sophomore annual dance, was held for the third year, and it looks as though everyone is enjoying himself.

This year's junior class executive committee members put their heads together and came up with many new ideas for their class.

One of the many assemblies given this year is enjoyed by the underclassmen.

The Underclassman Section will be found on pages one hundred fifty-eight through one hundred eighty-one.

Faculty and Classes

Discussing future building plans are the school trustees and the school attorney. From the left, they are Mr. Robert C. Bulleit, attorney; Mr. Ralph W. Gresham, treasurer; Dr. John M. Paris, president; and Mr. Robert H. Harris, secretary

Administration and Faculty

Educational progress and physical growth well represent the school year 1955-56 at New Albany High School.

The school has grown in physical size, occupying this year the Mechanic Arts Building, but most of all it has grown in its service to the community by developing intelligent, well-adjusted youth who are qualified to serve and lead in a complex society.

The school's progress in the field of education, which has been great, has been the result of the capable leadership of the administration, combined with the sincere efforts of a well-trained staff of teachers.

Mr. Glen Barkes, executive officer of our schools, is due much of the credit for the constant improvement and growth of NAHS. His active interest in every phase of school life and his congenial personality make him a friend to his associates in both the faculty and the student body.

Mr. Delbert Brown, our principal, has also shown his deep interest in the advancement of our school by his tireless efforts. His strong sense of justice and his earnest desire to help all students have won him the esteem and confidence of students and teachers alike.

Dictating a letter to Miss Jane Cutler is our principal, Delbert A. Brown.

Assistant principal, Fred Hochmeister, smiles as he completes a hard day's work.

Working on student problems are our counselors, Mrs. Dorothy Motsinger and Marvin Oakes.

Ready to help are our deans, Miss Lucile Paris and Max Wiesman.

High academic achievement has been the constant goal of New Albany High School with special emphasis upon subjects that are essential to the cultural and intellectual growth of its students.

Not only have students been offered such subjects as advanced science, mathematics, languages, and other important academic subjects, but they have also had available to them many subjects that offer an outlet for creative ability and expression.

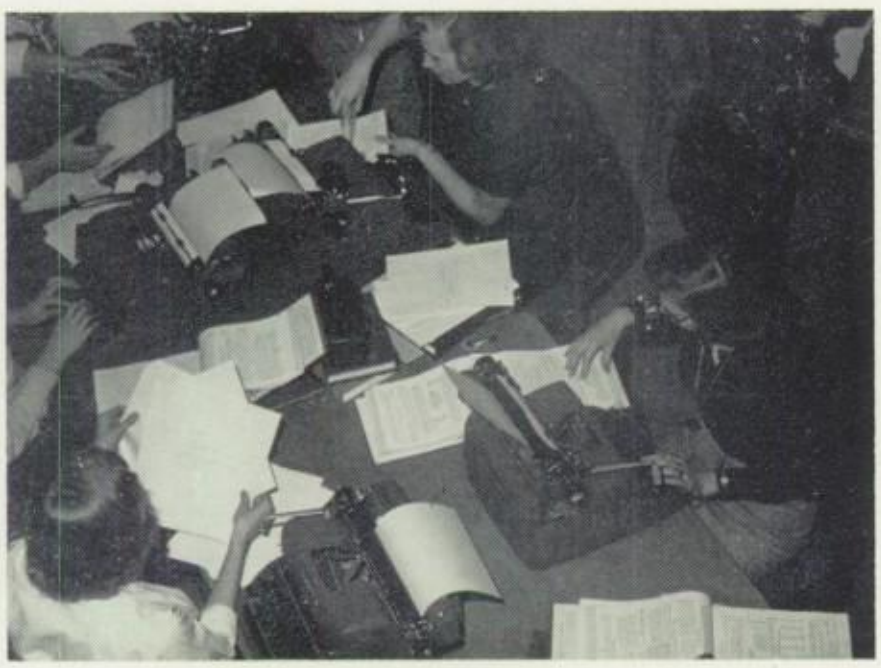
Thus, the subject offering is varied and gives each student an opportunity to seek out his own area for study and achievement. Through it, we, the students, prepare ourselves to take our place in society with the hope that by the proper use of our education that we can become effective leaders and citizens of tomorrow.

Preparing for an assembly are Paul Shallers, Mickey Neely, and Steve Wells.

Art students preparing sketch books are Mary Flora, Denola Belcher, Carolyn Fetz, Martha Fessel, and Gary Morlen.

Helping in the library are Donna Baker and Jackie Robinette.

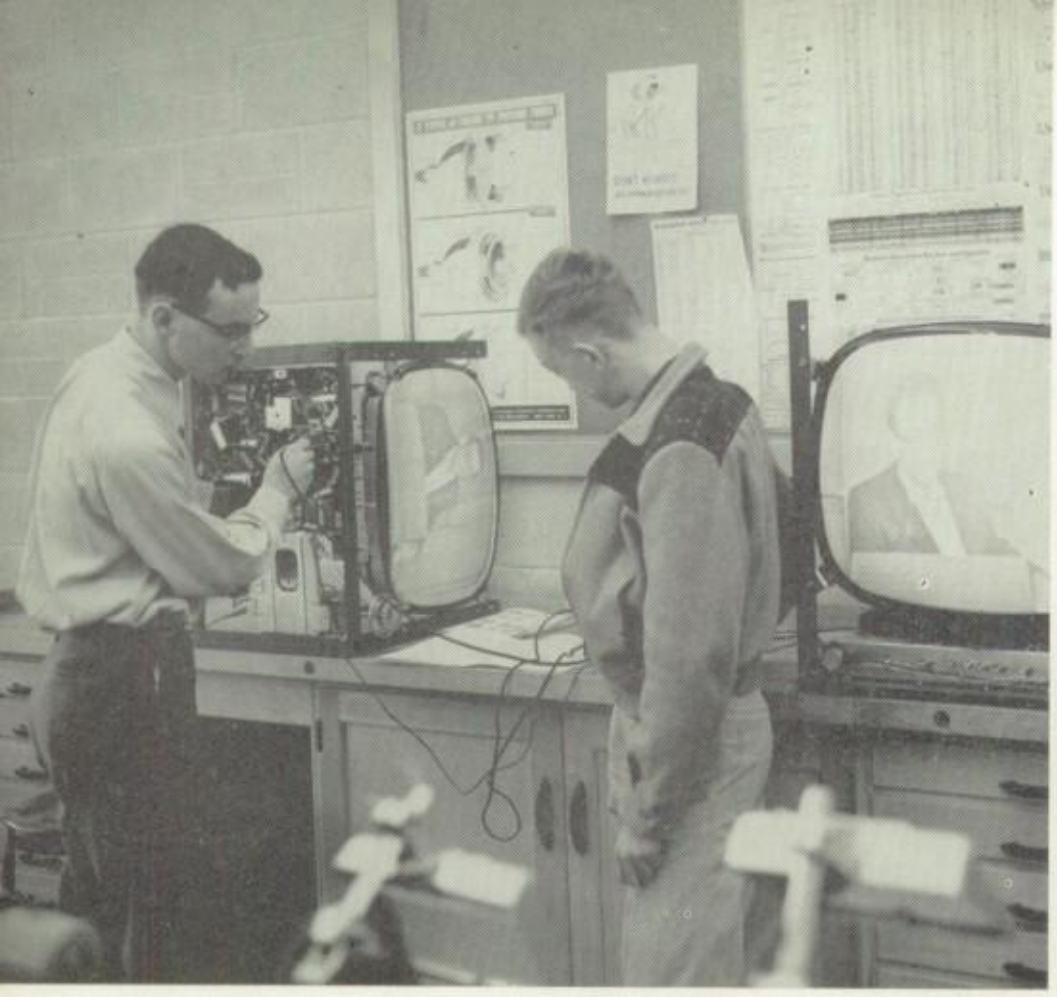
Larry McCullough prepares to put a show on the air as Diana Ott hurriedly gets a record.



Preparing for the next play of the season, Speech II members Tom Keller, Joe Carroll, Nancy Rodgers, and Jo Ann Fisher paint flats for the set.

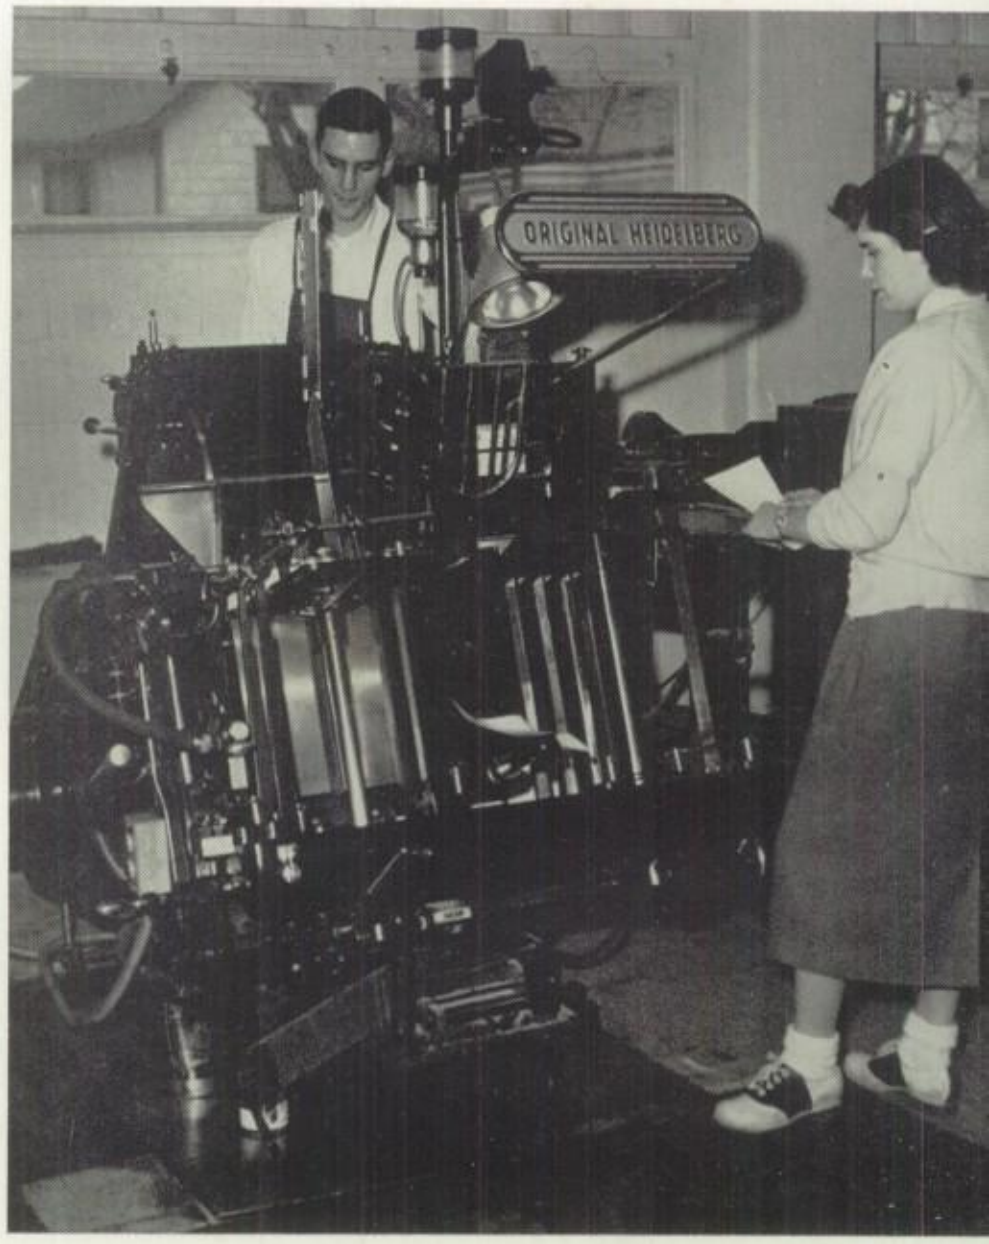
Miss Thomas' typing class is seen in action.

Ready to learn to drive are Carolyn Harper, June Woodward, and Joe Voyles.



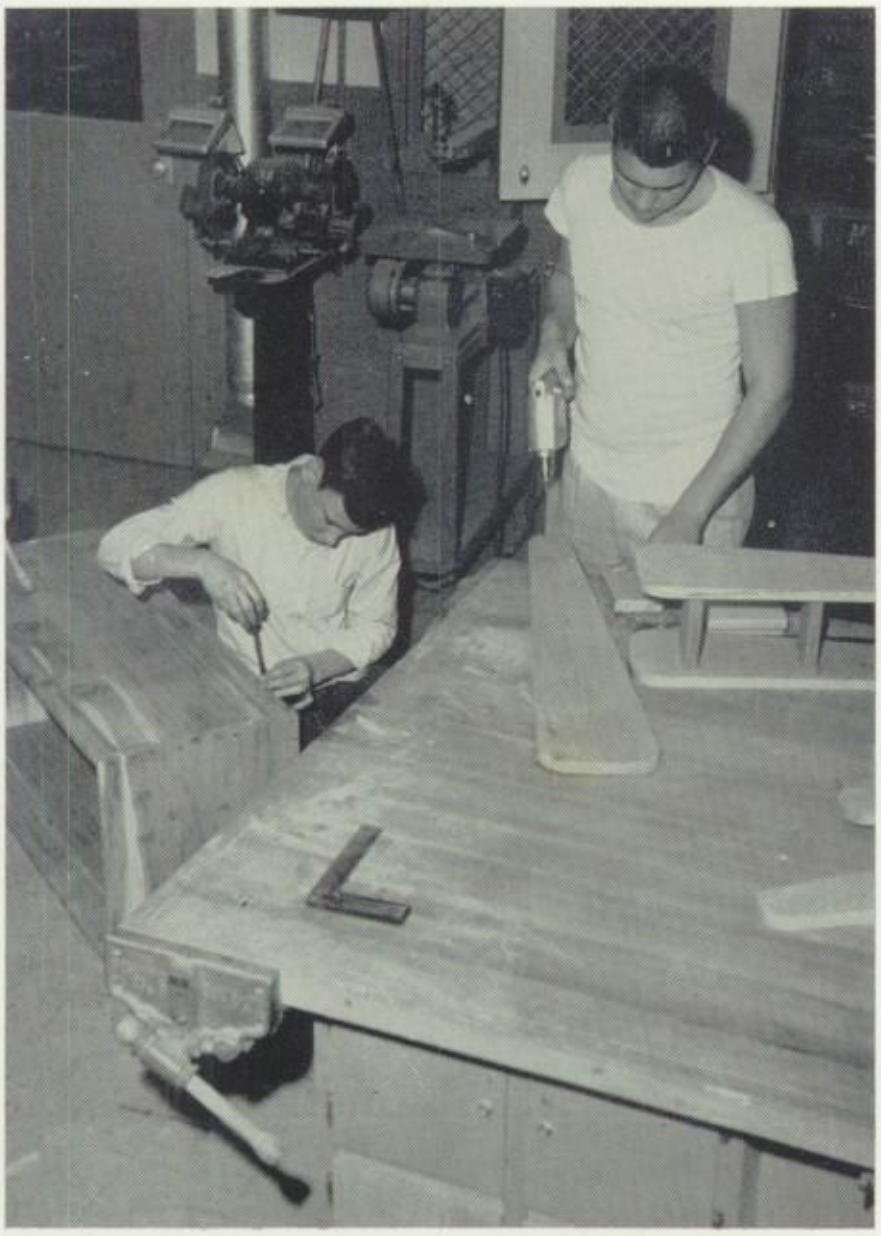
Jack Kessler and James Dome take measurements from the underside of a television chassis.

Dick Hilton and Jo Ann Wooldridge are watching a piece of printing as it goes through the new Heidelberg press.



Walt Cory is certainly engrossed in his drafting.

Preparing food in cooking class are Joy Smith, Carol Gillette, and Mary Stumler.



Putting finishing touches on a cedar chest is Jack Fulks as Omer Freiberger works on a smaller project in wood shop.

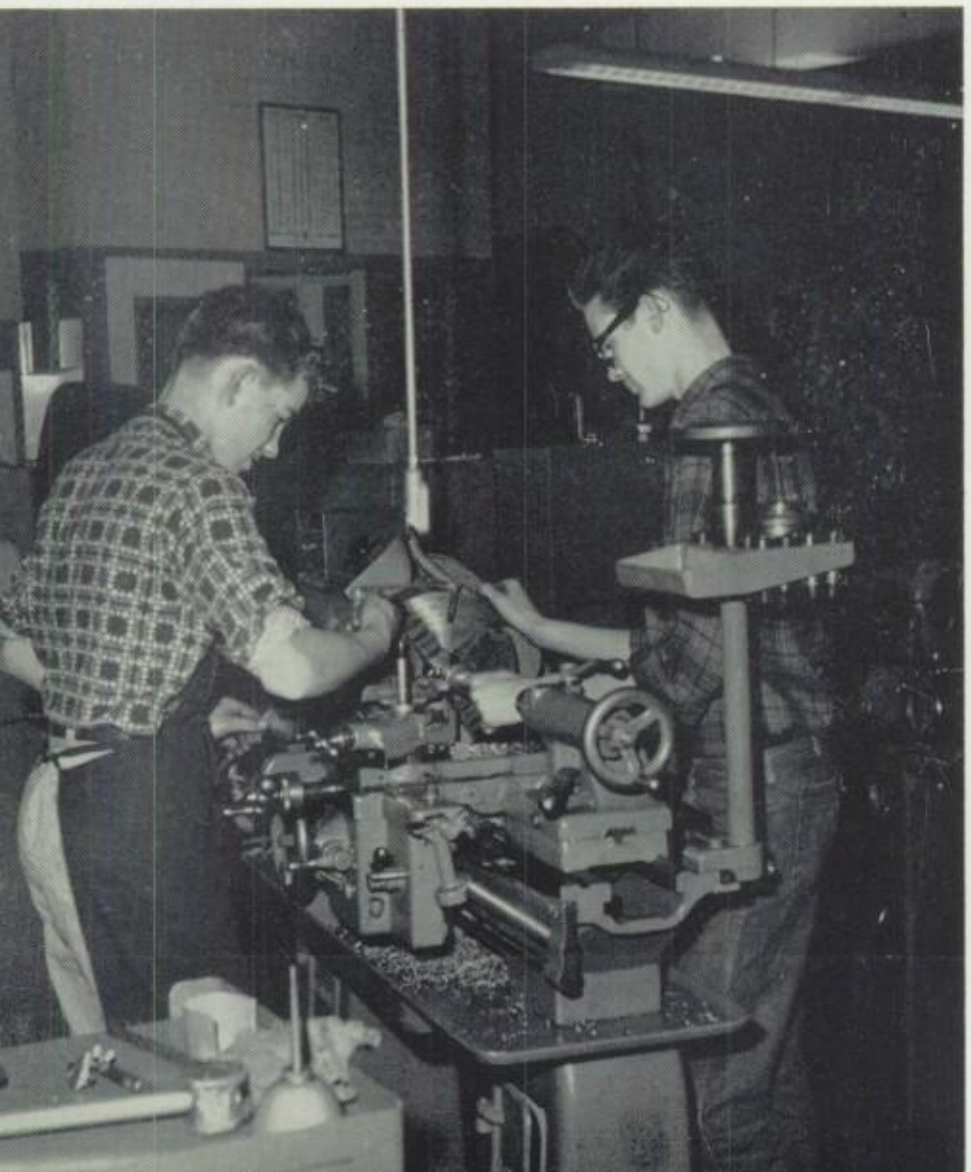
Vocational skills are developed in the new Mechanic Arts Building that now houses most of the vocational classes of our school. In it education is offered in well-equipped shops and classes to better prepare students for their vocations.

The new shops are beautiful in design, functional in use, and offer to all students an opportunity to prepare themselves in a practical way for their life's vocation.

This year new courses were offered in general shop and electricity, as well as those formerly taught in building trades, machine trades, drafting, printing, agriculture, and homemaking.

The vocational program is under the competent leadership of Edgar Stahl.

Diligently working to learn more about machine skills are Leonard Roberts and Roy White.



Oneita Phillips and Marilyn Abbott are deciding the shape of Charlene Rush's face in a homemaking class as the girls discuss hair styles.

Activities

Student Council

Miss Lucile Paris, dean of girls, and Mr. Max Wiesman, dean of boys, are co-sponsors of the Student Council, the purpose of which is to represent the student body in the most efficient manner.

The members are elected in their homerooms at the beginning of each school year to serve for one year and are required to maintain high scholastic and character standards.

This year the members of the organization have participated in many activities. A panel on Youth's Responsibilities was given for the P.T.A. by several Student Council members. Mixers were sponsored by the organization and were enjoyed by the greater part of the student body. Among the many activities sponsored by the Student Council was the freshman-sophomore dance, the Spring Cotillion, which for the third consecutive year was enjoyed by all who attended. The problem of whether or not to have one way stairs was the main problem confronting the Student Council this year.

This organization meets on Wednesdays or at any other called time when it may be necessary.

Discussing the trash containers which the Student Council purchased for the school are the officers for the year, Sherrill Colvin, president; Janet Thomas, secretary; John Sandlewick, treasurer; and Steve Von Allmen, vice president.

Row 3: Barry Austin, Ronnie Bedan, Carl Conte, Robert Carter, Eulas White, Paul Shallers, John Pepper, and Bob Owens. Row 2: Denny Jenkins, Jerry Very, Joan Hampton, Connie Ross, Cynthia Hickman, Martha Lieber, Judy Knobb, and Bob Applegate. Row 1: Wilma Snook, Anetta Legg, Sharon Miller, Betti Ford, Anita Whitlow, Carol Bohannon, Brenda Brewer, Susan Feiock, Saundra Drabing, and Sandy Schultz.

Mr. Brown presented Jerry Wright with a scholarship "N" during the awards assembly.

Scholarship "N"

Students receiving Scholarship "N's" help keep New Albany High School rated as one of the top schools in the state of Indiana. Presentation of the awards began in 1930 under the direction of former principal of New Albany Senior High School, Mr. C. C. Katterjohn.

To attain the honor of receiving the Scholarship "N" a student must achieve a scholastic average of straight "A's" in four solid subjects and no grade lower than a "B" if the student is carrying a fifth subject. The "N" is earned by student initiative, eagerness, determination, and willingness to study.

From year to year the number of high school students receiving this honored award reaches a higher number than the previous year.

Scholarship "N" is not a club, but a group of students who receive this honored award and are recognized as top New Albany Senior High School students.

Sue Shivel, Janet Harmeling, L. B. Hocker, Ronnie Akers, and Gary Austin admire scholarship "N's".

Speakers

Organized in 1921, Speakers holds the record for continued operation of a club at NAHS. Annual presentations of the club are the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter programs. The club also each year gives a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family.

The Speaker-Wrangler Banquet has become an annual affair of the club and is always looked forward to by all of the members.

To promote public speaking, charitable work, and social life among girls at NAHS is the well carried out purpose of Speakers.

To gain admittance to this club, one must first receive an invitation which then entitles her to try out by giving a five to ten minute speech on any subject of interest. Another requirement is the attainment of an "A" or "B" average in English and acceptable grades in all other subjects.

Miss Olleta Tyler is the sponsor of this club.

Officers stopping to chat in the halls between classes about some unfinished business of Speakers are Phyllis Posley, treasurer; Becky Minshall, student critic; Sunnye Adams, president; Diana Ott, secretary; and Colleen Oakes, vice president.

Row 2: Jo Ann Fisher, Mary Ann Brown, and Judy Shea. Row 1: Anne Biggerstaff, Libby Davis, Harriett Gilley, and Nancy Toops.

Finding happiness in giving to the poor are Ardis Patterson, Fhyllis Posley, Joelle Dempster, and Lois Casey as they place the food they have collected for their Thanksgiving basket into the trunk of the car.

At the Speaker Christmas program, Santa Claus gave a key to Mr. Hennon which fits a pair of handcuffs a student in one of his journalism classes put on him.

Taking part in the awe-inspiring Thanksgiving program were Bette Lester, Ardis Patterson, Becky Minshall, Lois Casey, Nathalea Foster, and Pat Abbott, outstanding members of Speakers

Wranglers

To promote public speaking, discussions, debates, and to participate in any worthy function of the school or community are the purposes of Wranglers, the oldest organized club at New Albany High School.

Wrangler members must be seniors, juniors, or sophomores and must have maintained a "C" average in English and social science, since their entrance in New Albany High School.

The willingness of the organization in giving its time for such worthwhile campaigns as the March of Dimes Drive in January, and the Crippled Children Fund in March, make a fine example of wholesome community work.

Enjoyment was shared by all at the Speaker-Wrangler Banquet held at the Colonial Manor in February, an annual event to which both clubs look forward.

The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Willman.

"Chicken or Steak?" was the question put before the Wrangler and Speaker clubs at the annual banquet.

New members of National Honor Society are seen immediately following their initiation on May 9.

Art Endres speaks on character during the initiation assembly.

The below pictured seniors were inducted during their junior year and are this year second semester members.

National Honor Society

To create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of NAHS are the purposes of the school's chapter of National Honor Society.

The local chapter, started in 1954, is a member of the national organization which stands for honesty, dependability, integrity, cooperation, reliability, and fairness in dealing with others.

The qualifications for membership require that one excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The teachers select names from the upper one-fourth of the junior and senior classes from which members are then selected.

The National Honor Society held its third local initiation in the high school auditorium before the upperclassmen of the school on May 9. Joe Voyles, John Sandlewick, Mary Asberry, and Art Endres spoke on scholarship, leadership, service, and character in an attempt to clarify the requirements for membership.

National Honor Society sponsors are Miss Ranck, Mr. Miltenberger, Mr. Oakes, and Mr. Summers.

Boys Glee Club

To sing for pleasure is the object of the Boys Glee Club. This is a newly organized club to promote good singing among the boys of NAHS.

There are 27 members, consisting of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Members are selected according to previous musical experience.

The Boys Glee Club members get an opportunity to display their talents by singing and directing. They also become acquainted with good music by many different composers.

This up-and-coming club is already well-known for its performance in the Christmas Concert, where members sang "I'll Be Home for Christmas" and "Winter Wonderland." They also appeared in the Blotter Show where they sang "The Man From Laramie," and "Falling In Love Is Wonderful."

The group is under the direction of Mr. Robert Carter and accompanied on the piano by Mickey Neely.

Rodney Pennell is directing the boys in a rehearsal for the Christmas Concert.

Let's harmonize with the Boys Glee Club as they take time out for popular songs.

Making plans for future activities are Janet Harmeling, vice president; Sara McKeny, alto sergeant-at-arms; Norma Swallow, soprano sergeant-at-arms; Jerry Meadows, bass sergeant-at-arms; Bill Wells, tenor sergeant-at-arms; Rodney Pennell, treasurer; Linda Weber, secretary; and Sherrill Colvin, president.

Concert Choir

Performances equal high standards in the New Albany Concert Choir.

The New Albany Concert Choir is an excellent example of an actual class of both enjoyment and learning. The choir is composed of eighty sophomore, junior, and senior girls and boys. Members of the choir are selected according to previous musical experience and tryouts.

The choir students are given opportunities to reach high performance standards and become acquainted with good music by many different composers. To develop poise and confidence in presenting good concert programs is also a very high goal of the choir members.

At the first of the school year, officers were chosen to preside at the choir rehearsals and programs.

During the Thanksgiving holiday, the choir presented a very enjoyable assembly for NAHS students. The Thanksgiving Proclamation began the program, with such songs as Harvest Hymn and other very appropriate songs following.

In December, the choir presented its annual Christmas program with a variety of gay Christmas songs for both young and old. The program was opened by candlelight singing and was closed with the traditional Song of Christmas. There was also a dance number in comedy by Jane Dickman, Sandra Utrecht, Roberta Roy, and Norma Swallow.

The choir presents its music for various holidays; however, its members also prepare general music to be presented at numerous entertaining assemblies. One of these programs was presented in the fall at the Junior High School.

In the latter part of April the choir members were hosts to seven high schools of Indiana that participated in the Valley Choral Festival. New Albany joined in the song fest, singing numbers learned by all participating schools.

The eighty students of Concert Choir strive to achieve top singing ability in order to participate in the choral festival which is held at a different high school each year. After the festival this year, the choir sponsored a mixer at the recreation center. A jitterbug contest was held; refreshments were served; and the entire day was enjoyed by everyone.

Concert Choir and the fourth period Speech II class also combined talents to produce an outstanding musical comedy, "Where's Charley," which was a huge success.

Obviously, the members of the choir are very talented, and this fact was proved when New Albany received great recognition at the music contest this year. Vocal participants, representing ensembles and solos, took part in the district contest held at Hanover College, February 5. The numbers receiving first division ratings then ventured to Butler University, February 19, for the state contest. As usual, New Albany did exceptionally well at both contests.

The Choir also presented an Easter assembly for the juniors and seniors with a recessional singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Giving programs is just one of the group's many activities; members also have fun learning their program numbers and special numbers which are presented to the public.

The sponsor of the Concert Choir is Mr. Robert Carter.

Music Appreciation

Music Appreciation Club was organized to help students learn to appreciate good music and also to learn more about music. The members study the backgrounds of the composers and the stories behind the operas.

The club was organized in 1935. The membership is open to only freshmen and sophomores. It contains 38 members this year.

Members of Music Appreciation Club held a candy sale on December 6, and later a white elephant sale to raise money for a collection of records.

Committees were appointed to be in charge of Tuesday club meetings. Each committee selected records from the following types: classical, popular, marches, jazz, and hillbilly. The club studied such songs as "Ave Maria," "Indian Love Call," and the marches of John Philip Sousa.

Officers for the club were Danny Albertson, president; Shirley Hardin, vice president; Bonnie Barnett, secretary; and Linda Johnson, treasurer.

Mrs. Laura Mellon is the sponsor of this club.

Music Hour Club

The Music Hour Club was established in order that the students who so desired could listen to different types of music and learn to appreciate each of them.

This club was organized in 1950 and is now under the leadership of Mrs. Joan Jones, who is trying to develop, with the members, a new and interesting program. This year, the thirty members of the Music Hour have studied and enjoyed many different forms of music from classical to jazz.

The members of the club have participated in candy sales and served the choral organizations of New Albany High School by ushering at their annual Christmas Concert. Outside activities have included attendance at the Scots Guards show at the Jefferson County Armory in November and a Louisville Orchestra Pop Concert which featured Bud Abbott of WHAS-TV, under the baton of Roberty Whitney, conductor.

The main purpose of the club is enjoyment. The qualifications are a genuine interest in music and a willingness to learn. Prospective members must be juniors or seniors.

The officers for the school year were Jamey Aebersold, president; Angela Wheeler, vice president; Rita Taylor, secretary; Pat Sullivan, treasurer; and Bill Baumann, sergeant-at-arms.

Making plans for the hayride are the officers, Pat Sullivan, Angela Wheeler, Bill Baumann, Rita Taylor, and Jamey Aebersold.

Several members are seen leaving for the Scots Guard program which was held at the Memorial Auditorium.

Listening to records are three members of the Music Hour Club.

Bel Canto

"Sing, Sing, Sing," is the motto for the Bel Canto Club. In 1928 a club was organized at NAHS to give girls interested in singing an opportunity to use their talents in presenting to the public top rate shows.

The Bel Canto Club takes pride in its annual productions. This year the club chose the all popular theme "From An Old Tin Type." Some of the songs were "Old Fashion Walk," "Barbershop Quartet," "Baby Bumblebee," and "You'll Never Know." Many hours of strenuous practice went into the show's production. The Bel Canto was rewarded when the curtain came up March 15 and revealed an auditorium with every seat filled.

This year the club's activities consisted of the Veterans Day Program, Christmas caroling, and the Christmas Concert. Their activities were brought to a close by the annual Bel Canto Dance, at which time a queen was crowned.

The sponsor of the Bel Canto Club is Mr. Robert Carter, and the student directors this year were Norma Swallow and Mary Lou Gibson.

The Bel Canto officers are Marcia Wrege, treasurer; Becky Minshall, music librarian; Sandra Utrecht, secretary; Betty Waltman, sergeant-at-arms; Jane Dickman, publicity; and Mary Lou Gibson, president.

Mary Harless and Nona Clark are the two little maids of "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard."

Barbara Morgan, Betty Waltman, Judy McCaffrey, and Sara McKeny harmonize to Sweet Adeline.

Singing "Strolling Through the Park" are Nathalea Foster, Sandra Utrecht, Barbara Morgan, Donna Krininger, Mary Lou Gibson, Becky Minshall, and Sara McKeny.

Taking a rest during a rehearsal of the marching band is the drum major for the past year, Larry Kinzer.

Band

The colorful New Albany High School Band, under the direction of A. Fielder Myers and Ovid Chambers, thrilled football and basketball fans with special musical arrangements during the season.

The activities of this year's band have been many and varied. The members attended Band Day at Indiana University and the Band Festival at Bedford. They also participated in the State District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Hanover College and attended the All-State Contest at Indianapolis. The highlight of the year was the performance as guest band at the evening concert of the 1956 Kentucky State Band Clinic. The band also has appeared at all local athletic events.

During the football season, the New Albany Marching Band, presented entertaining programs. It specialized in intricate marching routines and dance steps. The Marching Band attended Indiana Day at the Kentucky State Fair.

The 88 members in the Marching Band combined with other instrumental groups at the high school to present its well received annual spring concert.

Band members elected as officers for the school year were Jerry Meyer, president; Barbara Morgan, vice president; Jerry Mitchell, librarian; Judy McCaffrey, secretary; and David Grosheider, treasurer.

Practicing for one of the many half time shows presented at the football games this year is the NAHS Marching Band.

Social Dance Club

Can't dance? Don't feel bad. It is easy to learn even if you have had no previous experience. If you are a freshman or a sophomore student and are interested in learning to dance, the Social Dance Club is the club for you.

The purpose of this club is to teach the fundamentals of ballroom dancing, including the fox trot, waltz, rhumba, and jitterbugging.

The Social Dance Club was organized in 1950 and meets each Tuesday morning during the home room period with Bill Lee Weber.

The sponsor for the club is Miss Jessie Ruth Bobb.

It takes practice and more practice to [illegible] steps correct.

Square Dance Club

"Chase that rabbit, chase that squirrel, chase that pretty girl around the world" is a phrase which is often heard by the members of the Square Dance Clubs.

The Square Dance Clubs were first organized at New Albany in 1950, and have continued since to promote good dancers for everyday life.

In the past years the members of the Square Dance Clubs have enjoyed many activities. Among these is the attending of the International Square Dance Festival in November, and the State Festival at Indianapolis in September.

Membership in this club can be obtained by any student who has an interest in square dancing and who wants to be a good dancer.

The clubs have a meeting every Tuesday and Thursday morning during the homeroom period in the boys' gym. At these meetings the members learn to improve their dancing and are taught the different figures.

In May the clubs enjoyed a square dance party for the members and their friends. The caller was Sherlock Holmes.

After a while everything just comes naturally.

The Thursday club members take time out to catch a breath.

"Swing your partner and corner too" is the figure this group is practicing during club period in the gym.

Taking a needed rest are the Advance Square Dance members.

Planning the set for the next presentation of Student Theatre are Helen Wright and Anne Biggerstaff, as Rosemary Hurst, Diana Stumbler, Beth Silliman, Bonnie Benne, Sue Shivel, and Ann Jackman give helpful suggestions for improvement.

Student Theatre

To increase interest in plays and play production is the purpose of Student Theatre, a newly organized club. This purpose has been very successfully carried out as shown by this past year's activities. "Showcase" was presented this year, which consisted of three one-act plays, which were "The Valiant," "The Happy Journey," and "The Flattering Word." The club also presented readings this year for the patients at Silvercrest.

Initiation this year was held in the NAHS auditorium, at which time Miss Lucile Paris, Judy Hazelton, and Jo Ann Fisher became honorary members.

To acquire membership one must be a junior or senior and have shown a true interest in the theatre in some way, or must have taken Speech II sometime during high school.

Officers of the year were Tom Keller, president; Ann Jackman, vice president; Beth Silliman, secretary; and Jim Vaughn, treasurer. Mr. Thomas Weatherston is sponsor.

Larry Dalhover, Sharon Box, Judy Hock, and Jim Vaughn pause a moment to discuss an amusing part of a script they are reading.

"Pull ha-der," is the order given by Gary Epperson to Wayne Largent and Jack Whittinghill, all members of the stage crew of Student Theatre.

One of the three one-act plays of Showcase was "The Happy Journey" by Thornton Wilder. The cast consisted of Judy Hock, Anne Biggerstaff, Gary Epperson, Miss Lucile Paris, Rosemary Hurst, and Wayne Largent.

The cast of "The Valiant" consisted of Tom Keller, Mr. Thomas Weatherston, and Beth Silliman. All gave outstanding dramatic performances in this, one of the three outstanding plays of the Showcase.

"Ring out wild bells!" is the line Sue Shivel is seen giving in one of the plays from the Showcase, "The Flattering Word." Other members of the cast are Larry Dalhover, Diana Stumbler, Ann Jackman, and Jack Whittinghill.

Jack Harvey, president; Herby Underhill, treasurer; and Stewart Harmon, observe as Sandra Potts, secretary reviews her minutes. Standing are Barry Austin, vice president, and Ronnie Bedan, sergeant-at-arms.

Ann Howard, Ronnie Hartman, Theresa Moss, Stewart Harmon, Nancy Briggs, Danny Albertson, Bonnie Barnett, Bill Burd, and Grace Bailey are on their way to play practice.

Junior Actors

Junior Actors Club was organized in 1949 by Miss Gertrude Wilson and has since been an active club at NAHS. The club is presently under the sponsorship of Miss Nussbaum.

Experience gained by membership in the Junior Actors Club may be a stepping stone to success in the dramatics field. Any sophomore boy or girl who has an interest in the theatre and the dramatic activities at NAHS, and possesses a willingness to work qualifies for membership.

"The Murders of Miriam," a one-act play by Walter Kerr, was presented by the members in March. The play, a light comedy as well as a mystery, involved a detective, a potential murderer, several suspects, a body, and a mother-in-law.

The members of the club meet every Tuesday.

During play practice Sandra Potts, Judy Nunemacher, Nancy Herring, Theresa Moss, and Ronnie Bedan read their parts to one another.

Officers Phillip Grover, Janice Leach, Gayle Young, and Mickey Minshall, look over a script.

Freshman Dramatics

The purpose of the Freshman Dramatics Club is to bring out talents hidden in students and to give students experience in dramatics work, such as presenting at least one, one-act play, working with make-up and costuming, and the preparation of props. All of these are intended to develop self-expression and cooperation.

Any freshman boy or girl of New Albany High School who has an interest in acting in or reading plays or a desire to know how to produce them is eligible for membership in the Freshman Dramatics Club.

This club meets every Thursday, and this past year was under the direction of Mrs. Bettylee Marquis. The club was organized in 1948.

It is the goal of some of the members to earn points which will help toward the requirements for membership in the Student Theatre. Also, members have been working to develop cooperation and to offer to all members opportunities for self-expression.

Officers for this past year were Mickey Minshall, president; Janice Leach, vice president; Gayle Young, secretary; and Phillip Grover, treasurer.

French Club

The purposes of the French Club are to promote interest in the customs, language and culture of France and to give opportunity for expression of French through plays, folksongs, dances and by celebrating French holidays.

Membership in this club is open to members of the French classes or to anyone who has studied French in the past.

French festivals and holidays are celebrated in the French Club in the same manner that they are in France. A part of the club's activities is to serve refreshments and to dance the proper folk dances of the different national celebrations.

One of the holidays the club celebrated was the Twelfth Night performance, "Feast of the Kings," on January 6.

The club has stated its objectives as follows: "By French folk songs and dances we strive to improve our ability to increase our knowledge of the country of France and its customs."

Officers for this year were Peggy Gorman, president; Carolyn Harper, vice president; Mary Lou Saunders, secretary; and Judy Hazelton, treasurer.

The French Club consisted of eighteen members and was reorganized twelve years ago by its present sponsor, Mrs. Irma Pritz.

Officers for the French Club are Peggy Gorman, Mary Lou Saunders, Carolyn Harper, and Judy Hazelton.

Taking time out from rehearsing a folk dance are members of the club in French costumes.

Row 2: Kathaleen Potts, Joyce Keaton, Betty Reas, Nancy McCullough, Pat Owens, JoAnn Jefferson, and Norma Conrad.

Junior Classical League

Thursday is the day on which the Junior Classical League meets to transact its business and carry on the planning of the club's activities. This club has been very active this year under the sponsorship of Miss Alice Ranck, Latin teacher.

The purpose of JCL, which was organized in 1936 by the American Classical League, is to encourage interests in and an appreciation for the ancient Roman and Greek civilizations and to promote a better understanding of their contributions to government, law, literature, language, and the arts.

To qualify for membership in JCL, it is required that one be a student presently taking Latin or that one have completed courses in Latin.

Many activities were enjoyed by the members this year. One of these was the initiation at which Barbara Binford and Jo Hannah Hahn were given silver keys for their outstanding work in, not only the local JCL, but also the National and State JCL's.

An activity which took place during one of the club's weekly meetings was a Roman slave auction at which all members took part and masqueraded as many people who might be seen at a Roman slave auction.

JCL acted as host to the Regional English, mathematics, and language contests this year as usual. April 7 of this year, the club held its annual Roman Banquet at the New Albany Junior High School gym, which was enjoyed by all members.

The Saturnalia, which is a Roman Christmas celebration, was held in the Silver Street School recreational room. Olympic games were held this year in May.

The State Convention at Indiana University, April 21, and the National Convention at Miami University, June 24, 25, 26, were also attended by several members. Many outside speakers have also spoken for the club's enjoyment.

Officers of the year were Bill Ryall and Shirley Miller, consuls; Lucy Anderson, scriba; Dave Johnson, quaestor; and Bob Ewton, aedile.

Language Club

The Language Club, which is named the "Federico Garica Lorca," received its charter January 28, 1956, and includes within itself the National Spanish Honor Society. It is the second chapter in Indiana.

The purpose of the Language Club is to further the interest in the Spanish language and the customs of our neighboring country.

The Language Club was first organized in 1951, by Mr. Harry Stout, a former German and Spanish teacher. It is now under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Kerr, the Spanish instructor at NAHS.

Membership in this club is available to any high school student who is taking or has taken Spanish.

The club meets every Tuesday morning during the home room period in order to carry out its functions and activities.

Dorothy Andres, Tom Keller, Barbara Craig, Ronnie Akers, Ruth Angel, John Pepper, (seated) Miss Kerr and Lois Casey take pride in their newly obtained membership in the Spanish National Honor Society.

Art Club

The Art Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Virginia Biggerstaff, was organized in 1945 to give students who make a "B" or better average in art an opportunity to associate with other students of similar interests and talents.

This club is considered one of the most active and most helpful in the school. Members were helpful in making posters and programs for various plays and shows throughout this school year. Decorations made by the club were placed in the hall and added greatly to the Christmas spirit.

October 29 was the date of the Art Club's annual Halloween Party, held at the home of Mrs. Biggerstaff.

A Basketball Queen was crowned at the Sweetheart Dance which was sponsored by this club on February 11.

The club meets on both Tuesday and Thursday of each week with different members and officers for each day. The officers for Tuesday meetings were Bill Koch, president; Vera Seipel, vice president; Vicki Zahn, secretary; and John Bob Hall, treasurer. The officers for Thursday meetings were Larry Dalhover, president; Helen Wright, vice president; Martha Fessel, secretary; and Carolyn Wood, treasurer.

Several hours of hard work were necessary to construct an attractive throne for the Basketball Queen.

Tuesday and Thursday club members are seen at a combined meeting.

Decorating the Art Club window for the Christmas holidays are Martha Fessel, Helen Wright, Ann Murphy, Larry Dalhover, and Harley Francis.

Martha Fessel, Helen Wright, and Larry Dalhover were the winners of the best costume prizes at the Halloween Party.

Photography Club

The Photography Club was originated for the purpose of teaching the how's and why's of good picture taking in order that its members might further their interest in photography and learn how to take better pictures.

The only qualifications for membership are an access to a camera and a genuine interest in photography.

In order to aid members in taking and developing better pictures, the club used throughout the school year various slides, filmstrips, and movies featuring helpful hints on picture taking and developing. Films dealing with the construction of the camera and the manufacturing of films were also shown.

Several of the more outstanding photography contests were presented and discussed at meetings throughout the year and members were encouraged to participate in some.

The Photography Club was organized in 1944 and remained active through 1945. It was reorganized in 1948 by Mr. Delbert Brown and has been continued since.

The club is presently under the sponsorship of Mr. Edward Summers.

Bob Grimes is showing the parts of a camera to Bill Holderman, Ann Howard, Larry McCullough, and Chet Michell.

Members of the social committee are Donnie Scott, Jimmy Neafus, Ronnie Cooper, and Jim Kloster

Members of the Photography Club are Diana Miller, Jack Kessler, Floyd Dierking, Sloan Marsh, Bill Boos, Wilma Wallace, Nita Thompson, Eva White, Jack Bohannon, Ted Huber, and Jim Hudson.

Martha Fessel, secretary; John Magness, vice president; and Gary Fentress, treasurer, observe as Harley Francis, president, examines a stamp book.

Stamp Club

One purpose of the Stamp Club is to trade stamps and to learn more about them. Another purpose is to further develop the interest of the students who participate in stamp or coin collecting as an individual hobby. The club attempts to promote and gain the attention of more stamp and coin collectors in order that it might be expanded and that new ideas might be contributed.

This club was organized in the fall of 1951 by Mr. Norman Smith, who is the present sponsor.

To be interested in stamp or coin collecting as a hobby is the only requirement needed to be accepted as a member to the club, although it is better to have a stamp collection.

During the club meetings this group engaged in a variety of activities. Some of these included stamp and coin auctions, trades, and quizzes. At one meeting the members did nothing but trade coins. The members found that by having quizzes they could help further their education on stamps and coins of all kinds.

Wayne Baldwin, Roger Jenkins, and Larry Richards seem interested in the coin collection Ruth Payne is examining.

Debate Club

Many debates took place between the members of the Debate Club this year. The first topics on which they debated were on teenagers' problems and conduct. Next, the club debated important national issues and also some national political issues.

"It is resolved that the federal government should grant subsidies to needy and deserving students for college education," is the national topic for debate this year and was debated upon by the members of the club. The club held a party in the spring which was enjoyed by all of the members and their guests. The club also had a candy sale to raise money for further club activities.

The purpose of the Debate Club, which was organized in October of 1952 by Mr. Calvin Knobeloch, is to preserve the art of argument and to further the interest in public speaking, debate, civic affairs, and parliamentary procedure.

The Debate Club is open to all students of any class interested in debate.

This club consists of seventeen members and meets on Thursday of each week. The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Edmond Hennon.

The officers of the club for the past year were Shirley Albertson, president; David George, vice president; Sharon Oakes, secretary; and Allen Stoneberger, treasurer.

Radio

Improvement of speech, improvement of instruction, and promotion of public relations are the purposes of WNAS.

Through the sale of booster tags it was possible for the away games, as well as the home games, to be broadcast to Bulldog followers who could not attend. As a part of the tag sale, eight "Princesses of the Air Waves" were elected.

WNAS was on the air from 12:15 through 3:00 every weekday afternoon and the station also broadcast all special events pertaining to the school system. Operating on 800 kilocycles by 22 students, WNAS is a member of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters and is the first low-powered student operated FM station in the public schools in the United States.

On February 27, the staff toured the Radio and Television Center at Indiana University to promote interest in radio and television and to gain knowledge of techniques and practices used at the center. The staff also acquainted themselves with the facilities offered at Indiana University for further study and possible enrollment in the radio and television department.

Radio is a class for seniors who audition in their junior year.

Sunnye Adams, Donna Burd, Mary Lou Gibson, Jeanne Bernardi, and Sharon Box look over scripts for their programs.

Engrossed in examining the intercom equipment are the junior operators, Carl Platt, Jim Hardin, Jack Kessler, and (seated) Eidson Howard.

The first semester officers of the Electronics Club, John Stofel, vice president; Carl Smith, custodian; Bill Call, president; Larry Kinzer, parliamentarian; and Larry McCullough, secretary-treasurer, are discussing some important last minute business of the club.

Electronics Club

The Electronics Club is a service organization, responsible for the showing of educational films and for setting up and maintaining the public address systems for all programs at NAHS and New Albany Junior High School. The members of this club are also called upon to operate projectors for many downtown clubs and organizations.

Organized in 1949 by Mr. Vernon McKown, the Electronics Club is the only club of its kind in the Falls Cities area that assists with educational films.

To obtain membership in the club one must be in radio or visual aids and be either a senior, junior, or sophomore.

The club had both first and second semester officers. The second semester officers were Terry Phillips, president; Bill Tischendorf, vice president; Larry McCullough, secretary-treasurer; Larry Kinzer, parliamentarian; and Carl Smith, custodian.

Mr. Robert Willman is sponsor. First semester officers are pictured to the left.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education Club was organized in 1948. The purpose of the club is to further the distributive occupation as a profession. It also helps to promote distributive education in high school and experience in making social adjustments and adjustments to new situations.

As special activities and projects of the year, the members sold pictures of the NAHS bulldog team. By doing this, the students gained experience in meeting people and applying sales practices. Also, they sold refreshments at some of the basketball games. As many other NAHS clubs did, the group helped the March of Dimes campaign by donating money.

Once a year the members entertain their employers by having an employee and employer banquet. This past year it was held on April 16 at Colonial Manor. The state convention was held in Bloomington, February 8. The National Convention was held in Saint Louis, Missouri.

Before a student can get into the Distributive Education Club, he must have taken or be taking sales and business law. He must also have a job after school.

The club meets every Thursday and is under the direction of Mr. M. L. Miltenberger.

The club members also enjoyed a swimming party during the year.

Members of the Distributive Education Club enjoy their annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

Officers for the year were Bill Shireman, vice president; Donna Weldon, treasurer; Bill Koch, president; Juanita Miller, secretary; and Elizabeth Rose, historian.

Row 2: Janet Haendiges, Bill Holderman, Dalton White, Charlie Robertson, Dean Flick, Kent Hankins, and Donna Arnold.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers of America movement grew out of the Horace Mann Centennial in 1937. However, the chapter of Future Teachers of America at New Albany was organized just three years ago.

This chapter of Future Teachers of America is named the Glen Barkes Chapter in the honor of Mr. Barkes, superintendent of the New Albany City Schools.

On Monday afternoon, March 26, 1956, the members of the Future Teachers of America Chapter at New Albany assembled to receive recognition as a high school chapter in the state of Indiana. The members were presented their charter from the National Education Association in Mr. Barkes' office.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to acquaint the members with the teaching profession and various teachers' organizations. The club is also interested in helping desirable people to get into the teaching profession.

The Future Teachers believe that education should prepare each generation to meet the moral, spiritual, social, economic, and political problems of an everchanging world. All of this, they believe, contributes to the attitudes in private and public life — reverence for God, observance of the law, service to humanity, and growth in world citizenship.

The members of FTA regard teaching as a vital, unique force that is of utmost importance in keeping our democracy free.

Membership in this club can be obtained by anyone who is interested in teaching as a vocation. All are urged to join who are at all interested in surveying this field.

Miss Francis Winstandley sponsored the Future Teachers of America this past year. Past sponsors have been Mr. Delbert Brown, our present principal, and Mr. Marvin Oakes, the senior counselor.

Judy Harmon, historian; Mary Alice Young, treasurer; Pat Worden, vice president; Diana Stumler, president; Judy Wolf, parliamentarian; and Anita Hudgin, secretary, were the officers of the Future Teachers this year.

Future Nurses

Quick, nurse! Scalpel, scissors, sponge. These are but a few of the words that many girls in this organization may be familiar with in three or four years. Who are they? They are the Future Nurses Club members.

The purposes of this club are to interest high school students in personal and community health, to encourage students to consider the requirements and opportunities offered in a nursing career, and to help students determine which phase of the nursing profession they wish to enter.

The Future Nurses Club was organized in 1951 by Mrs. Anna Samples, but is now under the sponsorship of Mrs. Winifred Buchman, school nurse. Membership is open to any junior or senior girl who is interested in making nursing her profession.

This active club has toured a number of hospitals during this school year, including Floyd Memorial, St. Edwards, Silvercrest, and Children's Hospital.

The club held its annual Christmas Party in December at the home of Mrs. Buchman.

The Future Nurses Club, which meets on each Tuesday of the week, sponsored a banquet for the members of the Future Nurses Club of Jeffersonville, Indiana, on April 25.

Junior Red Cross

Interest in the National Red Cross and its activities is the purpose of the Junior Red Cross, a very active group at New Albany High School. The club is open to anyone interested in its purposes and the National Red Cross.

The members of the club filled scrap books for veterans with cartoons, jokes, and clippings from various newspapers and magazines. The local Red Cross then distributed the books.

Stockings were filled by the club during the Christmas season for underprivileged children of New Albany and some were distributed to crippled children at the Crippled Children's Hospital in Louisville. Members also filled envelopes with Christmas seals for the Tuberculosis Fund.

Mrs. James Vest, Junior Red Cross chairman, spoke to the club on their duties as members. Mrs. R. R. Eckert, chairman of special service, also spoke to the club to give them ideas for funds.

Officers for the year are Margy Gardner, treasurer; Susie Walker, vice president; and Bunky Binford, president.

Future Farmers of America

The New Albany Chapter of Future Farmers of America was chartered March 19, 1949. It is a part of the state association of FFA, which was founded in 1929, and the national organization, founded in 1928.

The purpose of the FFA is to develop character, agricultural leadership, train for useful citizenship, and create an interest in agricultural life and its problems.

During 1955-56 the chapter established itself as the outstanding chapter in Southern Indiana and as one of the top 20 chapters in the country.

Some of the many awards received during the year were the silver award in national competition and the gold emblem award in state competition. This was the third consecutive year the chapter received the gold emblem.

Other accomplishments won were first place in the state safety contest and second prize in the state exhibit contest. Ralph Terrell placed first in the state farm mechanics contest and was also chosen as one of the top three turkey producers in the country.

The chapter sponsored ten radio programs over Louisville's WGRC and WHAS, a trip to Chicago's International Livestock show, a program over WFBM-TV, Indianapolis, and also attended the state convention at Purdue University.

The chapter also sponsored judging teams in district and state contests, a special week long safety program that received state wide recognition, and co-sponsored the Jacobs Chapel Institute.

The chapter sponsored an exhibit tent at the county fair, and checked corn yields for 24 farmers and over 100 soil and milk tests were made.

Chapter members attended the state officers training school at Purdue and harvested 15 acres of hay as a cooperative venture.

Christmas trees numbering 2000 were tagged with fire preventive information. The chapter also published a newsletter about its activities and held experimental dairy calf feedings in cooperation with a local feed store.

There were 46 members in the local chapter this year. The officers were Eddie Morlen, president; David Chastain, vice president; Maurice Fetz, secretary; Charles Redden, treasurer; Frank Miller, reporter; David Breeding, sentinel. Mr. James Clouse, teacher of vocational agriculture, was advisor of the chapter.

Future Homemakers

Being organized in 1945 by Miss Martha Lee Ward, the Future Homemakers Club has continued in its purposes to further the interest in home economics.

The Future Homemakers Club is a member of the state organization and has also become an honor chapter during this past year.

Membership in this club is open to any girl who is taking or has taken at least one semester in homemaking, and who is interested in it.

During the past year the Future Homemakers enjoyed a most impressive formal initiation. December 13, the club also enjoyed a Christmas party for the members.

Problems which confront today's homemakers are discussed at regular meetings during homeroom periods on both Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The club consisted of 30 members this year. Mrs. Mary Kozee became sponsor of the club when Miss Ward left at the end of the first semester.

Phi Delta Tri-Hi-Y

Phi Delta Tri-Hi-Y, commonly known as the Senior Tri-Hi-Y, was organized in the fall of 1953 under the leadership of Miss Mary Augenstein, the present sponsor. This club has continued these past three years in its effort to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and the community the high standards of Christian character.

Among the many activities enjoyed by the club was the initiation of the new members held at the Church of God. The club sponsored the World Peace Program, and the lily sale on March 24.

A swimming party and a skating party were also enjoyed.

Membership in the club can be obtained by any junior or senior girl who is interested in the growth of Christian living.

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y meets each Tuesday morning during the homeroom period in order to carry out its function.

The officers this year were Sue Jerrell, president; surrounded by Patricia Knable, chaplain; Tamara Gresham, treasurer; Barbara Anderson, sergeant-at-arms; and Barbara Rufing, secretary.

Row 2: Donna Vest, Patty Sullivan, Dorothy Million, Deanna Alexander, Virginia Mason, Patricia Rankin, and Betty Wright.
Row 1: Marianna Otrich, Kay Condra, Dorothy Grimes, Wilma Buckle, JoAnn Thomas, Joyce Thomas, Earlene Dizney, and Marilyn Shutters.

Bringing out the spiritual meaning of the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Holidays was the joyous task of worship committee members, Janet Lasley, Phyllis Thomas, Dixie Roberson, Pat Abbott, Betty Phelps, and Judy Million.

Taking time out between classes to discuss some future activity of Alpha Tri-Hi-Y are the officers, Lois Casey, president; Anita Hudgin, publicity; Janet Thomas, treasurer; Mary Asberry, chaplain; and Colleen Oakes, secretary.

Selling candy is only one of the club's methods to make money used by Libby Davis, Carol Steproe, Maralyn Wolf, Pat Whiteley, and Judy Rasmussen, members of the finance committee.

Punch and cake were served to the members of the club and their guests at the initiation by the social committee, Jane Bye, Ruthanne Ehalt, Joyce Hublar, Ebbie Hunter, and Donna Burd.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

The publicity committee, Sandy Redus, Judy Turner, Denola Belcher, and Marilyn Reed, give helpful hints to Marilyn Hudgin and Mary Lieber as they paint the Tri-Hi-Y insignia on a poster.

If a girl is a junior or senior at NAHS and is interested in a Christian club, she would enjoy being a member of Alpha Tri-Hi-Y.

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character is the purpose of this club, which is sponsored by Mrs. Marcia Scott.

Members of this club have taken part in many activities this year and have found much enjoyment in doing so. The first activity of the year was the giving of a Thanksgiving basket to a very needy family in New Albany. The club also had its annual checkroom during all of the home basketball games and donated one game's profits to the March of Dimes.

Members of the club also aided in the March of Dimes Drive by taking over the stands in the downtown area.

Religious services, which were given before school the week preceding the Christmas and Easter vacations, increased the religious meaning of the holidays for the students who attended.

Other activities of the club included initiation at Centenary Methodist Church and the making and selling of carnations during the sectional.

A list of club members and their merits gained by services to the club is kept by the merit committee. Standing are Anna Dyson, Linda Paulsen, and Nan Gibbs. Seated are Delores Dunn, Pat Harmeling, and Phyllis Jones.

The duty of program committee members, Nancy McCullough, Elaine Hickman, Charlotte Gugel, Betty Lester, Pat Worden, and Harriett Gilley, is to plan each week's meeting.

Alpha Beta Tri-Hi-Y

The Alpha Beta Chapter of Tri-Hi-Y was organized in 1949 and has progressed steadily into one of the most active Tri-Hi-Y groups. The purpose of this club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian living.

Freshman and sophomore girls make up the membership of this Tri-Hi-Y group, which is sponsored by Miss Arterburn.

December 22 was the date of a Christmas party held by the club at the Sellersburg Orphanage. At Christmas members also sent money to Silvercrest Hospital for gifts.

The formal initiation of Alpha Beta Tri-Hi-Y was held February 10 at Trinity Methodist Church.

The group sponsored several candy sales which proved to be very successful.

A very worth-while project on which members worked all year was the making of cartoon scrapbooks for patients at Silvercrest Hospital.

The activities of the year were many and varied, and included the operation of a check room for basketball fans and contributions to various local and national benefit drives.

One activity of the club which every member seemed to enjoy was the swimming party given at the New Albany Junior High School pool.

Club members seem to be having lots of fun at the Christmas Party at the Sellersburg Orphanage.

Officers for Alpha Beta Tri-Hi-Y this year were Nancy Hancock, president; Bertha Schaffer, vice president; Linda Gibson, chaplain; Pat Gooden, treasurer; and Judy Potter, sergeant-at-arms.

Scrapbook committee members who kept busy all year making cartoon scrapbooks for Silvercrest Hospital are Martha Kendall, Bonnie Wade, Mary Mann, Marsha Kemple, Judy Alexander, Sally Funk, Alice Phillips, and Judy Potter

Kay Carter, Beverly Freiberger, and Marsha Kemple seem to be enjoying their meal at the formal initiation.

Distributing dish cloths to be sold are Ann Murphy, Betty Mather, Wilda Cooper, Dolores Dorsey, and Phyllis Davis.

Omega Tri-Hi-Y

The Omega Chapter of Tri-Hi-Y has been an active club at NAHS since it was organized for freshman and sophomore girls in 1948. This past year was certainly not an exception, for all of the members helped to carry out the purpose of the club, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Any high school girl, freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, may now become a member of this organization. To retain membership she must maintain a scholastic average of "C" and uphold the platform of the club, "Pure thoughts, pure words, and pure actions."

The members of Omega Tri-Hi-Y engaged in many activities during the year.

On November 22, the formal initiation at the home of Phyllis Davis was conferred upon fourteen girls. December 19 was the date of the Christmas party at the home of Dolores Dorsey. Each member brought toys for the children of the club's adopted family. As a part of community activity the girls also brought cheer to the family by furnishing a complete Christmas dinner and two baskets of staple foods.

At the Omega formal initiation Miss Ryall serves punch to Dolores Dorsey, president, Mary Ann McGee, Peggy Zeller, Phyllis Davis, Peggy Lewis, June Woodward, and Betty Mather.

Fund raising activities included sale of vinyl dish cloths and homemade candy. Also during basketball season the members added to their treasury by operating the check room for balcony fans.

Community services included working tables for the March of Dimes, the sale of Easter lily pins for the Handicapped Children Fund, and the soliciting of hands of tobacco at the tobacco barn for the Polio Fund.

Each year finds three club officers in training at Camp Tecumseh, Delphi, Indiana. Last summer Dolores Dorsey, Phyllis Davis, and Peggy Zeller were the representatives who succeeded in bringing renown to Omega Chapter with the election of Dolores as state vice president.

For the first time an NAHS organization will sponsor girl at Hoosier Girls State. Omega Chapter is sending Peggy Lewis as a delegate. Ann Murphy is the alternate.

The girls of Omega Tri-Hi-Y closed their activities for the year with the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet, held at the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Silver and Elm Streets on May 15. Newly elected officers were installed with impressive candle-light services. At this time, the merit award for outstanding service was presented.

Officers for the year were Sharron Waggoner, treasurer; Janice Moon, secretary; Carol Barrett, president; Vonda Box, vice president; and Judy Johnson, chaplain.

Zeta Chi Tri-Hi-Y

To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character is the purpose of Zeta Chi Tri-Hi-Y. Organized in September of 1953 for freshman and sophomore girls, the chapter is a unit of YMCA and is a service club.

For the convenience of people coming to the games, the girls maintained a checkroom during all the home basketball games. From one of these checkrooms they gave the proceeds to the community's annual March of Dimes Drive. They also gave their time to work downtown at the polio stands in January.

Distribution of pins at an impressive initiation for new members was held at the Culbertson Avenue Baptist Church in January and was a highlight of the year.

Miss Juanita Spencer, English teacher, was the new sponsor for the organization this year.

Norma Allen receives her pin from Carol Barrett during the formal initiation.

Senior Hi Y

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character is the purpose of the Senior Hi-Y Club, organized in 1945, by Miss Ruth Braeutigam.

This club has participated in many activities throughout this past school year. Several mixers were sponsored by the club after the basketball games.

The shakers seen at the sectional games this year were made and sold by the members. The March of Dimes campaign was aided greatly by many of the members donating their time for this worthy cause.

On the sixteenth of January the annual banquet was held. The speaker was Tom Allebrande, sports editor for WLRP. He spoke to the group on sports writing and also sports in relation to radio.

Swimming every other week at the new Junior High School was also an activity that was enjoyed by the club members.

Any junior or senior boy who qualifies can obtain membership in the club. It meets every Thursday under the direction of Mr. Stanley Sajko.

Sigma Hi-Y boys enjoy a good meal at their annual banquet.

Sigma Hi-Y

Good standing, mentally, morally, and spiritually, is one of the requirements of the Sigma Hi-Y Club. Any junior or senior boy who meets this requirement qualifies for membership in the club.

To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character is the purpose of the club, which meets every Tuesday under the direction of Mr. Floyd Henry.

This club supported the athletic teams by sponsoring special pep sessions which were greatly enjoyed by the students of NAHS. The members of the club also helped in the local March of Dimes campaign.

The students of NAHS had several chances to satisfy their desire for candy when the Sigma Hi-Y boys made candy to be sold at school during the lunch hour. The boys also sponsored a mixer after one of the basketball games. The annual initiation was held on the first day of February.

At the end of this past year a special achievement award was given by this and another Hi-Y club to John Sandlewick.

The Sigma Hi-Y Club is affiliated with the State YMCA and is a part of the National YMCA.

Freshman Hi-Y

Officers for the year were Charles Jerrel, secretary; Larry Quinn, sergeant-at-arms; Barry Austin, president; Denny Jenkins, vice president; Tom Sinex, chaplain; and Jerry Very, treasurer.

The purpose of Freshman Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. This Hi-Y is open to any freshman or sophomore boy who meets the standards of the club to qualify for membership. Freshman Hi-Y was organized in 1946 but has previously been called Junior Hi-Y.

This lively group of boys engaged in various activities. One of these activities was participation in intramural basketball games which were held weekly in the NAHS gym. Freshman Hi-Y members also volunteered their services after school to referee several grade school sports, including football, basketball, and baseball.

Every Tuesday night the club enjoyed swimming in the Junior High School pool. On Mondays the club went to the YMCA to spend enjoyable evenings playing basketball, tennis, and ping pong.

The members of the Freshman Hi-Y worked hard all year making money to send three of their boys to YMCA camp.

This club is sponsored by Mr. Charles Pratt.

Discussing some Hi-Y material are the committee chairmen, Kenny Hartfield, Jon Mathes, Tommy Habermel, Ronnie Baylor, and Tom Sinex.

Rifle Club

Learning fair play, sportsmanship and knowing how to shoot safely are the rewards of being a member of the Rifle Club. To gain this knowledge, the member attends basic training classes Tuesday of each week.

This organization was started in September of 1943. It consists of 65 members. From the club a rifle team was chosen.

Their activities consisted of the state meet held at Culver, Indiana, in which they won 23 medals. Each year the outstanding Rifle Club members are sent to the Sectional Shooting Match. This year's Sectional Shooting Match was held April 21, 1956. The Rifle Club also had the highest score for girls in the Sectional Shooting Match.

The New Albany Rifle team has won the sectional each of the eight years that it has attended. More medals in the state and national matches were also won this year.

The club picnic was enjoyed May 6 at Henryville where various games were played and a meeting was held.

Officers for the club are Russell Ford, president; Bill Tischendorf, vice president; Jim Baker, executive officer; and Charles Barker, secretary.

The sponsors for this year's Rifle Club are Mr. Harley Francis and Mr. Ivan K. Gates.

Bowling Club

The main purpose of the Bowling Club, organized in 1946, is to help provide healthful recreation, to teach good sportsmanship, and to give beneficial exercise for the students of New Albany High School.

Every Wednesday after school at the Pearl and Oak Bowling Alleys, eight teams consisting of five men each compete for a team championship. It was won this year by the Whiz Kids, composed of Carl Snook, Jamey Aebersold, Jim Hardin, Bill Zurschmiede, and Dean Taylor. The individual trophy went to Carl Snook, who averaged 162 pins per game.

An interest in bowling is the only requirement needed to become a member of the club.

"It's a strike for sure!" is a phrase that can be heard as Carl Snook, high scorer, sends a fast one down the alley.

Officers for the year were David Becker, secretary; Ronald Boes, treasurer; Larry Blackman, vice president; and Jamey Aebersold, president.

Row 4: Jack Dalton, Phillip Grover, Donnie Smith, Berry Smith, Melvin Francis, Larry Richards, Larry Griesinger, Bob Brown, Bill Bishop, and Roy Brant. Row 3: Bob Backer, Bill Kidd, Jim Hardin, Carl Snook, Melvin Romans, Richard Williamson, Jamey Aebersold, Dick Middaugh, Dennis Preston, Dean Taylor, John Howe, and Phil Hollobaugh. Row 2: Jack Eichenberger, Raymond Knight, Larry Kraft, Robert McSpaddin, Larry Sherrod, Bruce Bandy, Jim Weigleb, Phil Badger, Larry Badger, Jerry Bowling, and Bili Zurschmiede. Row 1: Frank Cooke, Larry Blackman, Dave Becker, Ronald Boes, and Ray Berry.

Varsity "N"

The purposes of the Varsity "N" Club are to promote an interest in athletics and to develop good morals and clean living for boys participating. Varsity Club members are boys who have at one time won a letter in one of the major sports—basketball, football, baseball, or track.

Until two years ago working out plays for the various sports here at school had been the only purpose of the Varsity Club; however, this year the club has progressed and developed into one of the most active clubs in the school by carrying on many outside activities.

Each year the Varsity Club participates in intramurals. This year, it won the intramural basketball tournament.

One of the most worthwhile projects of the year was the baskets of groceries that the club gave to needy people at Christmas.

The club members had looked forward to their annual picnic which, as always, proved to be a huge success and a lot of fun for every member and his guest.

Mr. Forrest McCaffry, head football coach, sponsors this club which meets on each Thursday of the week.

Girls Athletic Association

No, boys, this time this is strictly for girls only. The Girls Athletic Association was first organized at New Albany in 1931. It then consisted of eleven members; since then the club has grown to an even one hundred members.

With the assistance of their instructor and sponsor, Miss Sue Hughes, the members of the Girls Athletic Association strive to the best of their ability to promote more participation in the Girls Athletic Association.

Membership in the club can be obtained by any girl who has an interest in girls' sports and who is physically able to participate.

The members this year took part in basketball, volleyball, and tumbling.

Among the many other activities of the year enjoyed by the members of the Girls Athletic Association were the initiation in January of this year, the selling of pencils in November, a spring picnic, and the playdays in the spring.

The officers this year were Lois Casey, president; Maralyn Wolf, vice president; Judy Streckfus, secretary; and Phyllis Thomas, treasurer.

Senior Boosters

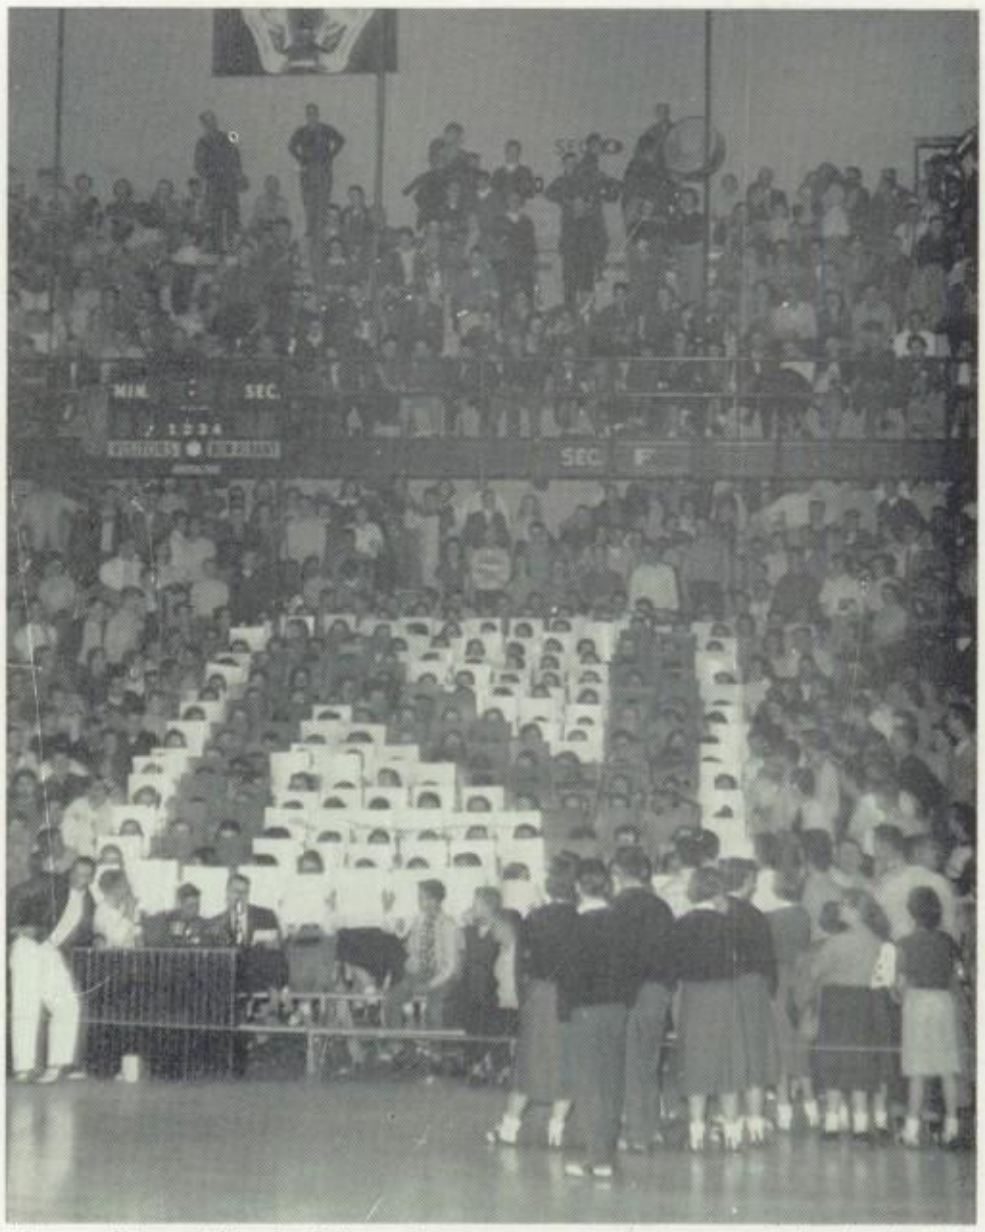
One of the most colorful and active clubs at NAHS is Senior Boosters, which was organized in 1949 by Miss Alma Fischer.

The purposes of the organization are to back all school activities and to promote good sportsmanship. Both have certainly been accomplished this year.

The club sat together at all of the home basketball and football games. During the football season, the members wore white gloves and did many tricks with their hands. For the basketball season the traditional block "N" was formed. Several bus trips were also taken by the club to away games.

Two other activities of the club were the swimming party in May and a dance on Friday, April 13, to which the girls asked boys.

To be a member of this club it is required that one be a junior or senior girl and be a part of the block "N".



The traditional block "N" took on a new look at one of the basketball games when it was formed by cards during a card display.

Junior Boosters

To promote better sportsmanship among all students at all athletic events and to boost all school activities are the purposes of Junior Boosters, a club sponsored by Miss Ellis and Miss Tingle. The club is one of the largest clubs around New Albany High School. Organized in 1948, Junior Boosters has since been enthusiastic by supporting the various Junior Varsity teams.

Six Junior Varsity cheerleaders are sponsored by the club each year. This year's cheerleaders were Linda Douglas, Linda Gibson, Bertha Schafer, Pat McCampbell, Judy Raney, and Lucy Anderson. The club also helps the Senior Boosters by filling in the top three rows of the well-known block "N." The members also group themselves together to contribute a lot of noise for the freshman and sophomore side of the gym at all pep sessions.

The qualifications for membership in Junior Boosters is to be a freshman or sophomore girl with a sincere desire to uphold the purposes of the organization.

The officers, who carried out their jobs very efficiently, were Saundra Drabing, president; Pat Jenkins, vice president; Bonnie Wade, secretary; and Bobbie Lou Lee, treasurer. The officers were aided by the executive committee.

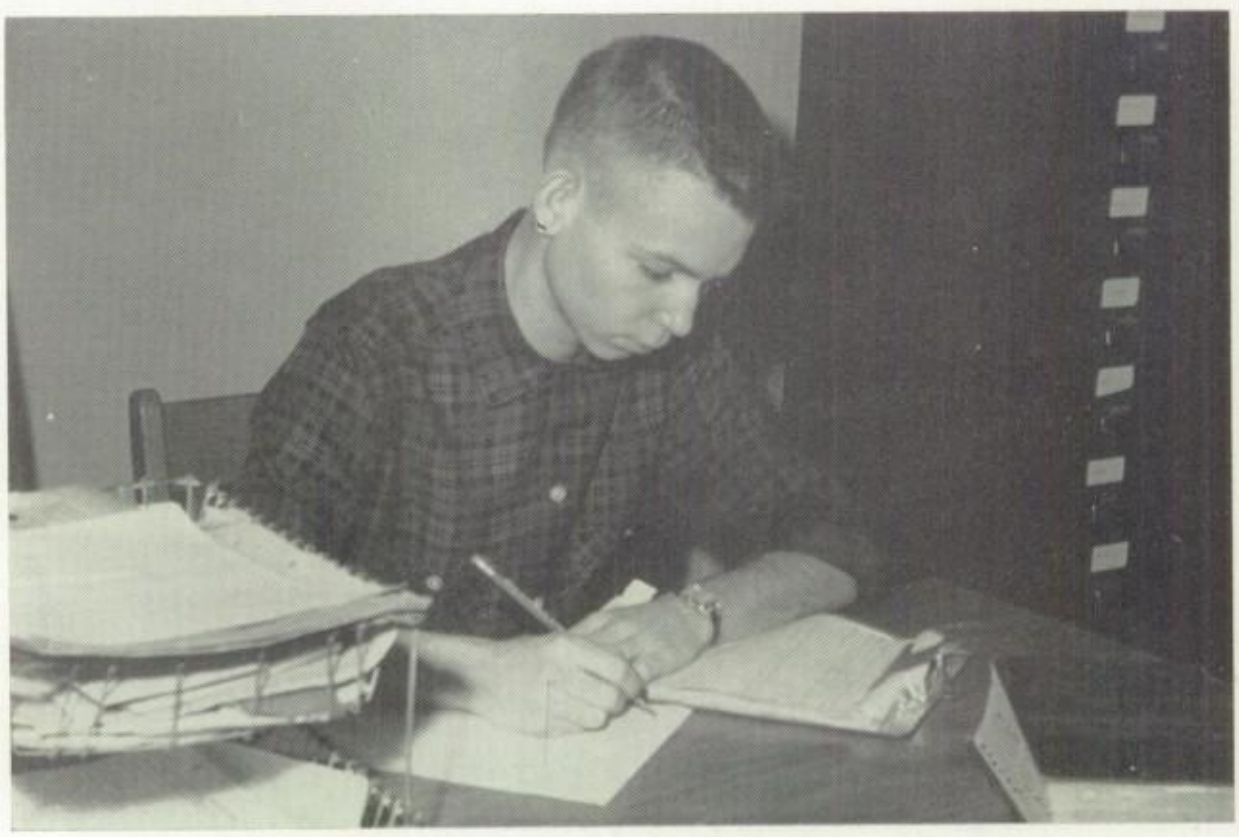
Carol Steproe is checking with Mr. Hennon, sponsor of the News Bureau, for sources of information which can be used as high school publicity.

Sue Shivel, a member of the news staff, interviews Shirley Albertson for a story.

Shirley Guethe is typing a story that is to be published in the local papers.



Writing publicity stories for release to the local newspapers is one of the jobs of Jim Vaughn.

News Bureau

Delivering copy to the newspaper and radio station is the job of Kenneth Houglin and Eddie Freiberger.

The News Bureau staff, under the direction of Mr. Edmond Hennon, meets second period daily. During this time members collect, organize, type, and prepare for distribution to radio station WLRP, New Albany Tribune, Clarksville Tribune, Louisville Courier-Journal, and Louisville Times all news releases for the day.

Only three times during the year did the News Bureau find that no news was available for release. The high for the year was as many as eight stories a day.

The third period members of the staff take clippings of all New Albany High School publicity from the above mentioned papers and mount them in a large scrap book as a running historical record of the school year. Over 1800 stories and pictures were mounted in the book for the past school year. The program of dissemination of school news to the public is second to none in the state of Indiana.

This is the first year the school has had a News Bureau. Other years the news was released by advanced journalism students. The News Bureau operates without officers, but with the students who work on it taking charge at different times.

The News Bureau published a basketball book with information about the team and sent out information concerning the team to all schools that we played.

Scissors come in handy to Nancy Lucas and Virginia Mason for cutting out school news to be mounted in the publicity scrap book.

Wayne Largent gives a helping hand to Jo Hannah Hahn as she mounts stories and pictures in the scrap book.

Catherine Jo Ellis, editor, and Susie Walker, assistant editor, visit the print shop to see that the Blotter is put together correctly.

Sue Shivel, news editor, assigns the different news stories to her staff which consists of Janis Hatton, Connie Koehler, Sue Jerrell, Wanda Hurley, Janet Lasley, Nona Linne, and Joyce Staton.

Blotter

The Blotter, the NAHS newspaper, is published by junior and senior fourth period journalism students. The paper, which is put out bi-weekly, consists of sports, features, and the latest happenings around NAHS.

The paper is printed by the high school's own print shop. It is then sent to the journalism students to be proofread. The finished product is one of the finest school newspapers in this part of the state.

The journalism classes sponsored the sale of basketball and football programs at all the home games. These programs contained pictures of the team and the names and numbers of both of the competing teams. This year, as in past years, the Blotter staff sold basketball booklets containing information and pictures of the team.

To learn more about editing the school paper and to view what other schools were doing, three members of the Blotter staff journeyed to Franklin College to attend the annual meeting of the Indiana High School Press Association. The three students who made the trip were Catherine Jo Ellis, editor, Susie Walker, assistant editor, and Sue Jerrell, news editor.

Mr. Edmond Hennon supervises the publication of the Blotter.

Linda Paulsen and Carol Steproe, proofreaders, were in charge of seeing that the Blotter appeared "without errors."

David George, photographer for the Blotter, discusses the use of pictures with editorials. The staff members are Mary Alice Young, Norma Wimp, and Larry Griesinger.

"Nancy Knows" is the feature being written by Nancy Stern, editor. Sarah St. Clair, Marilyn Reed, Carol Weldon, Polly Garrison, Jack Whittinghill, Joy Dillman, Shirley Brock, and Becky Minshall compose the Feature Staff.

Blotter subscription and many other duties keep Brenda Breece, business manager, busy.

"Look at New Albany's sectional team!" says Larry Leffler, while Maralyn Wolf, Kenny Houghlin, and Guy Bell, sports editor, look on.

Vista

The Vista is the product of the sixth period journalism staff under the supervision of Mr. Edmond Hennon, sponsor; Sunnye Adams, editor; and Marcia Wrege, assistant editor. All write-ups, the mounting of pictures, organization, and soliciting of advertising are done by the students to publish the Vista, our annual record.

Acquainting themselves with techniques used elsewhere around the state of Indiana, Sunnye Adams, Marcia Wrege, and Janet Thomas attended the Indiana High School Press Association Conference, at Franklin College in October.

Mid-summer distribution makes it possible for spring sports, class day, graduation, baccalaureate, and other spring or senior activities to be published in the largest annual ever distributed among the students of New Albany High School.

Six staffs — activities, sports, business, senior, faculty, and underclassmen — make up the publishers of your annual, the Vista.

Sunnye Adams, editor, and Marcia Wrege, assistant editor, admire this year's Vista.

Bob Griffin, Janet Fothergill, and Dixie Roberson, business manager, prepare receipts for advertising.

George Everbach, sports editor, assigns write-ups to John Shoup, Jim Wade, James Grundy, and Dave Walker for the sports section.

The anxious Bulldogs break out of the huddle to start the second half of the game.

Varsity Football

The 1955 New Albany Bulldog team was a young, inexperienced aggregation when they opened their football season. Their first game found them playing against the Valley Vikings at Valley. The first half ended with the Bulldogs on the short end of a 19-0 tally. The second half, however, was a different story. Between halves the Bulldogs' fighting spirit was aroused, and during the second half they outfought and outplayed the Vikings. The Dogs outscored the Kentucky team 12 to 6 in the last half, but this was not enough to overcome the Valley lead and they dropped the game 25-12.

The following week the Macmen played host to the Bloomington Panthers. Led by Terry Byrd, who scored three touchdowns, they displayed much improvement over their first showing by downing the Bloomington club 33-7. The game was sparked by two of the longest touchdown runs ever made on Buerk Field. One was by shifty James Johnson which covered eighty-five yards and the other an eighty-six yard gallop by Terry Byrd.

On September 23, the Bulldogs invaded Parkway Field to tangle with the powerful St. Xavier Tigers. Playing without the services of regular center Carl Johnson, who was out with a knee injury, the Dogs went down in defeat 29-7. The game, which was played in a heavy downpour of rain, was marred by two disappointing injuries. Larry Gullet, the Bulldogs' 225 pound tackle, suffered a broken leg and Jim Daugherty, regular left tackle, received a knee injury which sidelined him for the next three games.

The Macmen returned to Buerk Field for the fourth game of the season to play Shortridge of Indianapolis. The injury ridden New Albany team, with four starting defensive men out of the game, was shut out by the up-state squad 18-0.

On October 8, F. J. Reitz of Evansville, the state's number one team at that time, invaded New Albany seeking to avenge last year's defeat by the Bulldogs.

The first quarter ended with the Panthers holding a slim 7-0 lead. Throughout the next three quarters, however, the Evansville team opened up its big guns and ran over the Bulldogs 48-0.

GUY BELL

The next week the Bulldogs played host to the Vincennes Alices. In the annual Homecoming Game, the Dogs exhibited much improvement by soundly trouncing the Alices 26-0. Guy Bell, stalwart left half, scored two touchdowns in the team's second victory.

The following Friday the Bulldogs traveled to Evansville to meet the powerful Central Bears. The Central team, who the week before knocked off F. J. Reitz, had moved into the state's number one position. Behind Don Schnell, whose steady toe provided the winning margin, and Jerry Daily, who threw two touchdown passes and scored one touchdown himself, the Dogs defeated the "Pocket

The Bulldogs then returned home to play the Shawnee Indians of Louisville. The Dogs' offense, which was throttled throughout the first three quarters, finally opened up with three minutes and thirty seconds left in the game. NA tied the Indians 13-13.

The Macmen closed their season against Bosse of Evansville at Bosse Field. With the Bulldog backs gaining yardage consistently, they defeated Bosse 25-19. Guy Bell scored two touchdowns on runs of twenty-seven and thirty-three yards to lead the Dogs.

This year's team was bestowed many honors. Jerry Solomon and Jerry Daily were voted to the United Press third string all-state team. George Everbach was selected as first string end on the United Press team and was selected to the Associated Press thirty-three man traveling squad. Further honors were bestowed upon the Bulldogs by Jerry Solomon and George Everbach being chosen to the SIAC first team, and Jerry Daily and Terry Byrd being chosen to the second team.

Junior Varsity Football

The 1955 Junior Varsity football team compiled a commendable 5 won — 1 lost record. The Bullpups were led throughout the season by their shifty halfback Dave Ramsey, who scored seven of the team's thirteen touchdowns. Bill Ryall, stalwart fullback, finished second in scoring to Ramsey with four touchdowns. The rugged play of the J. V. linemen was outstanding and many of the starters are expected to fill varsity positions next year.

The J. V.'s opened their season against Male and set the Purples back 19-6. Dave Ramsey scored two touchdowns and Howard Jennings scored the other.

The Bullpups played their first home game of the year against the Seymour Owls and downed them 14-0. Dave Ramsey and Bill Ryall scored the touchdowns.

The following week the Bullpups played host to Flaget. In a hard fought battle, the Pups suffered their only defeat of the season 7-0.

The Pups got back on the winning trail as they defeated Butler of Louisville 20-14.

In a closely contested tussle, the J. V.'s edged past the Central Yellowjackets 20-19. The Pup's one-two scoring punch, Ramsey and Ryall, tallied the touchdowns.

The Bullpups wrapped up the season with a victory over Shawnee 14-6.

With the addition of this last victory, the J. V.'s completed one of the most successful seasons ever attained by a Junior Varsity team. The coaches who guided the team to its fine record were Mr. Stan Sajko and Mr. Phillip Thrasher.

Freshman Football

The freshman football team, the second to represent New Albany High School, completed a very successful season, going undefeated in four games.

The 1955 team showed great promise of playing outstanding football in the next few years by rolling up 128 offensive points and holding their opponents to a mere 19.

The freshmen opened their season against Flaget of Louisville in a game played at Shawnee Park. The game proved to be the closest contest the Pups encountered all season as they downed the Louisville team 13-6.

The Pups' next game found them playing host to the Seymour Owls. The Owls went home with their feathers ruffled as the powerful NA squad rolled over them 40-0.

The following week the Pups entertained the Cadets from Kentucky Military Institute. The freshmen scored six touchdowns as they marched over the Cadets 41-0.

In the closing game of the season, they played Holy Trinity of St. Matthews. The Kentucky team proved to be keener competition than the two preceding foes, but the freshmen continued their winning ways and won over St. Matthews 34-13.

The team was ably coached by Mr. Damon Sims and Mr. Kenneth Smith.

The Bulldog Harriers conquer one of the many hills that lie along the grueling course.

Cross Country

The cross country team finished its season with a good record of 3 wins and 2 losses. On September 21 the boys ran their first meet of the season against the Silver Creek Dragons and defeated them 15 to 40.

Their next meet was held on September 23 with Salem, who defeated the New Albany Harriers 20 to 45. The team then tangled with Fern Creek of Louisville, who won in a closely contested meet 25 to 35.

On September 30, the Harriers ran in the Seymour Invitational Meet and took tenth place in a field of 19. The boys next ran against Charlestown, October 4, and beat them 27 to 28.

The Henrymen competed in the SIAC meet at Bloomington on October 10 and won fourth place in a field of 19.

Next year should prove a good season for the New Albany Cross Country as 6 of the 7 boys who finished the season will be back.

Over the river and through the woods really applies to the NA cross country team.

Wrestling

Wrestling was brought back to New Albany High School this year for the first time since 1940, at which time it was tutored by Mr. Alex Thom.

Along with this sport was added a new coach to the faculty, Mr. Phillip Thrasher, who has quite a background in the rough-and-tumble sport. He graduated from Bloomington High and was state champion his senior year and was also a member of the Indiana University squad.

The inexperienced grapplers opened the season against Woods of Indianapolis, defeating them 26-20.

Next they matched strength with the strong Ben Davis, also of Indianapolis, losing by the score of 35-12. After losing to University High of Bloomington 31-15, the New Albany grapplers came to life, defeating Parks of Indianapolis 38-18.

Bloomington, Mr. Thrasher's former high school, defeated his new charges 31-8. Evansville Central barely escaped being upset by the keyed-up New Albany team beating them 22-21.

The Kentucky School for the Blind, after defeating New Albany 36-19 early in the season, came back to find an improved team and slipped by 23-19.

Only two New Albany men placed in the sectional—Jody Murphy, fourth in the 95 pound class, and Don Cummins, fourth in the 120 pound class.

Varsity Basketball

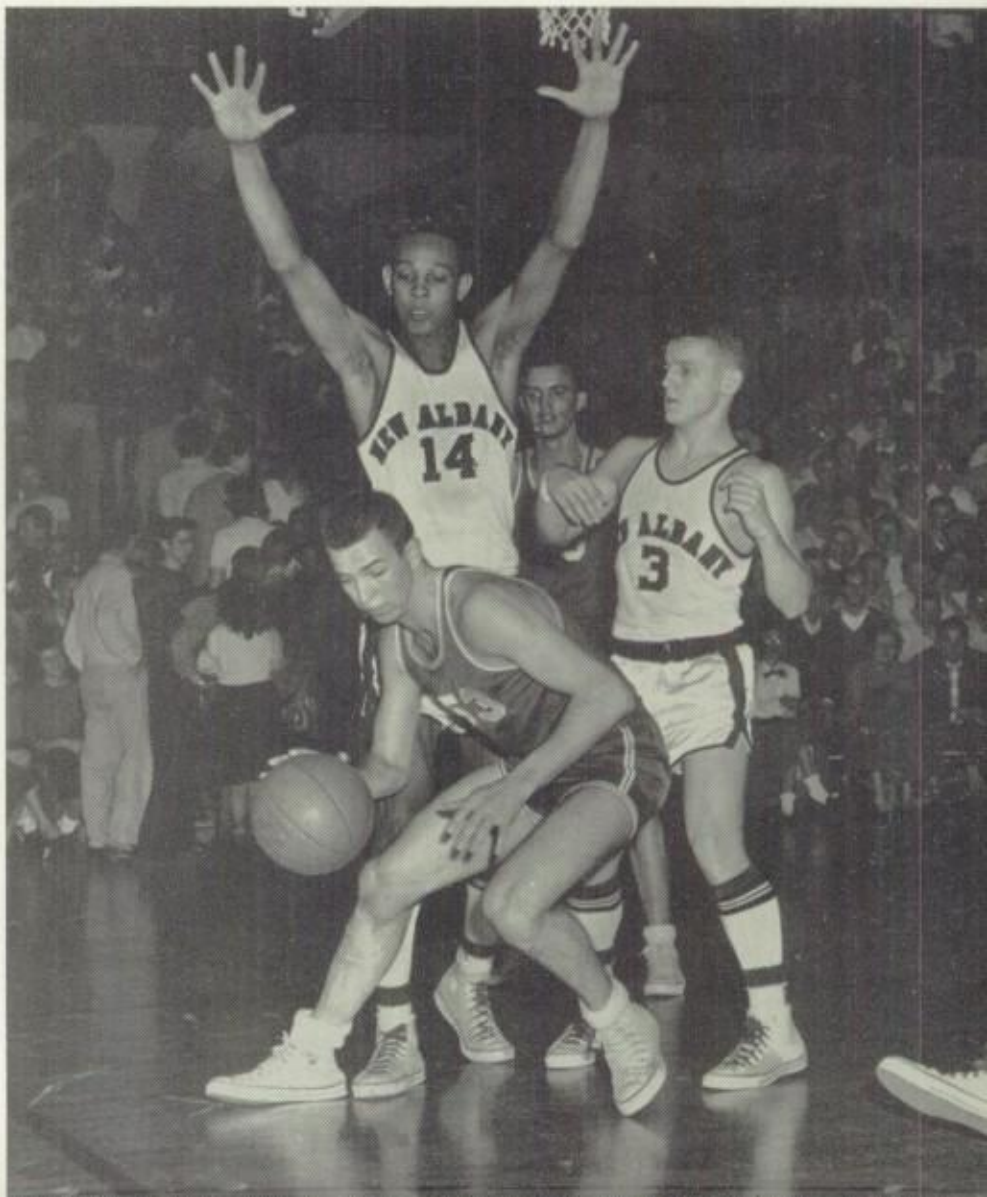
The 1955-56 Bulldogs won 20 and lost 7. While at times during the season the Dogs had their ups and downs, they still did a good job. Coach Givens lost all of his starters except Harold Johnson, around whom he had to build a winning team. This year's team had a lot of never-say-die spirit.

The team lost the SIAC to Princeton, but advanced to the semi-finals for the third time in the last five years. The Bulldogs sneaked past Corydon 63-61 in the season opener, but didn't look very good in doing so.

The Dogs looked better in beating Bedford 78-58. When they traveled to Martinsville they were a much improved ball club, but still lost 78-73. The Anderson Indians just edged out the Bulldogs in a nip-and-tuck game 65-64, and the Vincennes Alices were sent home with a loss of 82-79 in an overtime.

Johnson and Shofner double team a North Central player in the sectional.



Dave Chastain takes a cut at the net after the regional tournament victory.

When the Dogs traveled to Washington, they dulled the Hatchets 67-63 in a very thrilling battle. The Givensmen then traveled to the Lafayette Invitational Tournament. They lost the first game of the tournament to Lafayette 75-53, and then lost to a strong Hammond team in a consolation game 76-57.

The Bulldogs broke the state record of 115 points in defeating the Bosse Bulldogs 122-72. They then traveled to Kentucky's Memorial Coliseum to defeat Lexington 68-62. New Albany romped over Reitz Memorial 93-73. Next, the Canines ran over seventh ranked Madison 84-68. Ace Johnson scored 30 points; and then to top off the weekend, he scored 30 points again as the Dogs dumped third ranked Seymour 83-79.

The Marksmen from Tell City were thumped by New Albany 90-60. Manual of Indianapolis then set the Canines back 72-50, but the Dogs made up for this game by defeating F. J. Reitz 71-67. The following night, the Bulldogs, looking much better than they had in the two previous games, defeated Howe of Indianapolis 77-68. They then squeaked by Jasper 68-59 in a very close game and on Friday of the same week lost to Central of Evansville 67-59.

The Bulldogs closed their regular season with a victory over Bloomington 68-60. They romped through the sectional by defeating Lanesville 82-53, and then North Central fell to the Dogs 82-55. The next afternoon they burned up the nets in defeating Marengo 106-64. The final game of the sectional proved to be quite exciting when they beat Elizabeth 57-52 in a hard-fought battle.

The next week at the regionals the Bulldogs ran over the Bluejackets of Mitchell 93-60. In the night game they edged Seymour in the last 5 seconds on Everbach's two free throws, 64-62. At the semi-finals the Canines fell to Princeton 59-39.

Ace Johnson made the second team of the Courier-Journal all-state team. Johnson was also awarded the sportsmanship trophy, and Bill Henry was awarded the Mel Brewer free throw award for the high free throw average of seventy-five per cent.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The New Albany Junior Varsity, coached by Floyd Henry, concluded the 1955-56 season with a very good record, winning 11 games and losing only four. The JV's started the season with a loss to Corydon 46-39. Then Bedford added to their woes with a 31-29 win.

The boys notched their first win with a 47-32 victory over Martinsville. In the next game, the Bullpups scalped the Anderson Indians 38-32.

The Hatchets of Washington fell 52-49, and Atherton fell by a score of 47-37. The Pups then ran up the highest score of the season by defeating Flaget 58-44. Madison ended their victory string at five games by dropping them 53-38.

Seymour couldn't keep up with the Pups and fell 48-34. The following Friday the Marksmen of Tell City lost to a superior New Albany team 40-34.

The Bullpups made it two in a row by downing Manual of Indianapolis 39-37. Reitz downed them by 36-34, and then the JV's ran over Indianapolis Howe 52-39.

The team ended the season with wins over Jasper 53-34, and Evansville Central 38-31. This year's team had a good spirit and fought back when the going was the toughest.

Freshman Basketball

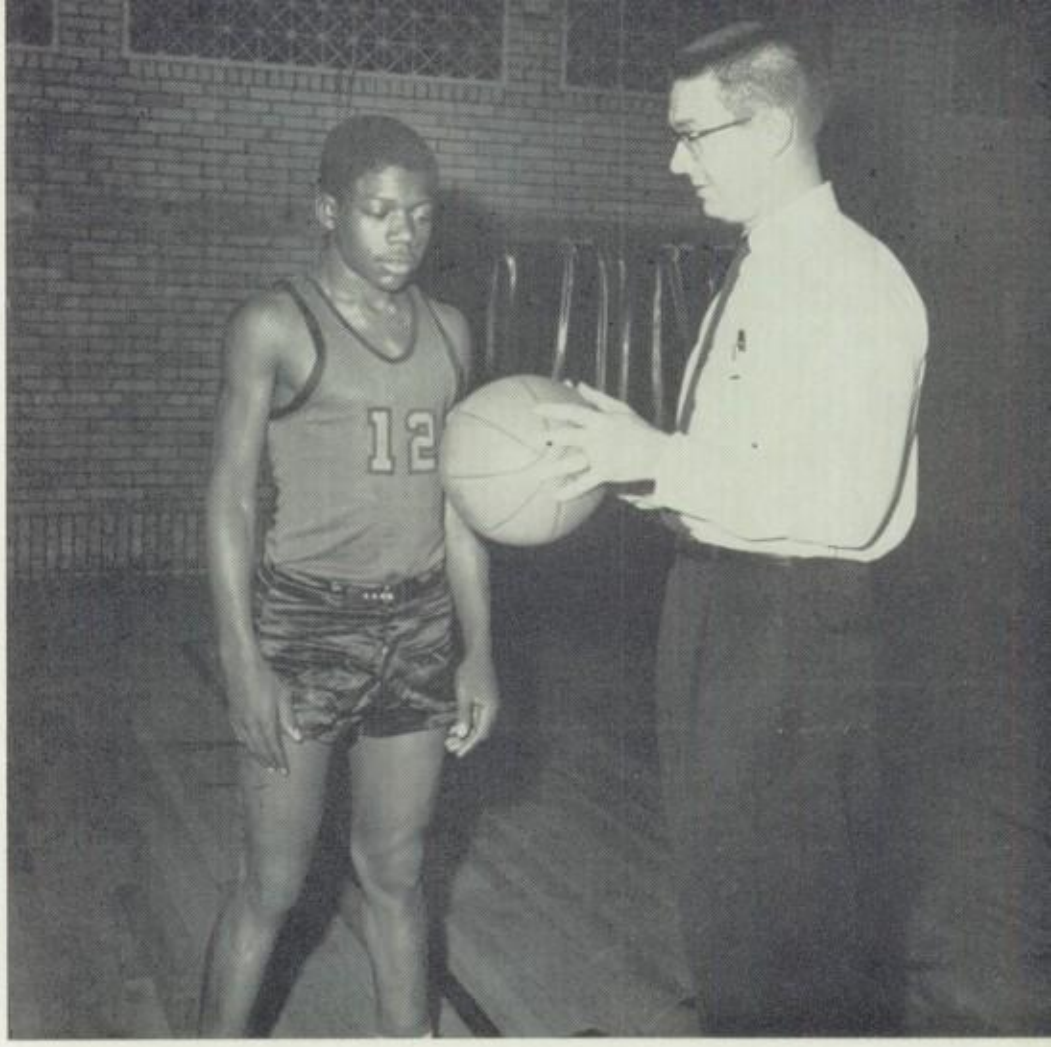
The 1956 Freshmen ended their season with a very impressive record of 17 wins and 7 losses.

In the first encounter, Corydon downed the Freshmen 44-42 in a close game. They then got on the right track by dumping Clarksville's B team 40-26. The Freshmen made it three in a row by defeating Clarksville's A team 59-48 and Salem 32-21. Next they rolled over Providence 47-36 and in a close game beat Silver Creek's Freshmen 31-29.

Silver Creek's JV's downed the Freshmen 50-34, and Central of Louisville JV's defeated them 40-27. Then New Albany won a hard-fought game over Flaget 31-27 and rolled over Silver Creek's Freshmen for the second time of the season 42-30. They ran up their highest score against Silver Creek's B team 66-20 and squeaked past Salem 46-45.

The following week the Frosh romped over Clarksville's B team 46-28 and their A team 40-36. The Freshmen really showed their ability in the SIAC tourney. In the first game they defeated Bedford 48-32, and in the second game they ran over Jasper 46-34.

Washington defeated them 41-33 and Bosse downed them 33-31 in the hard-fought games of the finals of the tourney.



Mr. Pratt gives Emery Whitfield some helpful hints on ball handling.

Upon the Frosh's return home, they defeated Providence 44-31. In their next game they snapped to and defeated Flaget 49-35. Charlestown eked out a 29-28 win and Central of Louisville defeated the Frosh 47-33. The Freshmen finished their basketball campaign with a 29-23 win over Corydon to end an excellent season.

The team was coached by Mr. Charles Pratt.

Swimming Team

December 2, 1955, marked the start of the swimming season for New Albany High School. The 1955-56 team was the first ever to represent the Bulldogs in swimming competition.

The competing Varsity team was coached by Mr. William B. Milne, who in addition to this job was swimming instructor for both the junior high and senior high physical education classes.

The New Albany tankers attended the state swimming meet at West Lafayette, Indiana, where they placed fourth in the state with their 200 yard medley relay team and finished ninth over all in a field of twenty teams. This meet was at the close of a difficult season for the beginning New Albany swimmers; however, it and the final meet of the season indicated the team's progress this year and point toward greater success and power for New Albany swimming teams of the future.

The first contest of the season was on December 2, with Columbus, Indiana, at the New Albany Junior High School swimming pool, which was used by the team for all home meets. The inexperienced Bulldog swimmers were beaten by Columbus 63-12. In a return meet on December 16, the Bulldogs swam at Columbus and were beaten by the same score.

On January 6, the Bulldogs suffered defeat at the hands of Atherton High School of Louisville, Kentucky, at the local pool. The impressive score of 40-37 in Atherton's favor seemed promising, as the New Albany swimmers were a new and comparatively inexperienced group. However, on January 20, the Bulldogs met an improved Atherton at the Louisville YMCA and lost 56-21.

New Albany swam against St. Xavier of Louisville and was beaten 63-14. Burris of Muncie, Indiana, invaded New Albany waters the following week-end and downed the Dogs 56-21.

In the second meet with St. Xavier, on January 30 at home, the New Albany swimmers were dunked 59-18. The Bulldogs traveled to Middletown, Ohio, February 4, and lost 45-15.

At Lexington, Kentucky, February 10, New Albany was again beaten by Lexington Lafayette 48-29. On February 13, the Bulldogs were host to Manual of Louisville, and registered their first and only victory of the season, beating the Kentuckians 59-17.

Track

The New Albany Track Team had a very successful season this year as it won four out of its five dual meets, losing the one by only one point.

The team also proved to be the superior one in the New Albany Relays as it won the meet for the third consecutive year.

In the sectional meet, the Bulldogs captured the sectional crown for the twenty-fourth time in 26 years.

Joe Carroll proved to be a great asset to the team. Carroll in all of the relay meets of the season set a record in the pole vault. In the regional at Bloomington, Carroll set an all time regional record of 13'¼". The high jump record was no match for him as he broke the school record as well as the sectional record with a jump of 6'¼".

Eddie Owens, one of the top hurdlers in the state, placed third in the 120 yard high hurdles in the state meet held at Indianapolis. During the year Owens equaled the school record in the 120 yard high hurdles with a time of 15.2. In the NA Relays, Owens broke the record in the 180 yard low hurdles with a time of 20.6.

Carroll and Mitchell, as well as Owens, qualified for state competition.

Weldon Mitchell clears the bar at 5'10" for a new school record.

Jim Grundy breaks the tape in a closely contested 100 yard dash.

Varsity Baseball

The Varsity Baseball team completed a highly successful season by compiling a 20-1-1 record.

Before the season started, many people were skeptical about the potentiality of the team. However, the Bulldogs proved to be one of the greatest aggregations ever to represent NAHS.

The Bulldogs opened their season by trouncing Eastern 14-0. Playing their second game at Shawnee Park, the Dogs defeated Male 6-2. They won their third game in a row by winning over Central 15-6. On April 14, the Dogs traveled to Bloomington and split a double-header by taking the first game 3-2 and losing the second 7-6.

They then traveled to Shawnee Park to face St. Xavier in another double-header. The Dogs took the measure of the Tigers in the first game, 6-5, but the second game ended in a 3-3 tie as darkness halted play.

On April 26, the Dogs opposed Kentucky Military Institute. The Dogs ran up their largest score of the season as they defeated the Cadets 21-4.

The Bulldogs entertained Bedford on April 30. The Dogs annexed two important SIAC victories as they defeated the Stonecutters 9-2 and 5-4.

Keeping up their winning ways, the Dogs downed Paoli 3-0. Silver Creek 19-2, Central 8-6, and Male 5-2.

On May 10, they traveled to Jasper for a double-header. By defeating the wildcats, 9-1 and 3-0, the team ended its conference games with a 5 and 1 record.

In their next outing, the Dogs ran over KMI 19-6. They defeated a strong Southern of Louisville aggregation 13-7 and 7-1 in a double-header.

The Dogs won their last three games of the season by defeating Silver Creek 20-1, and Providence 16-15 and 4-3.

Junior Varsity Baseball

The 1956 Junior Varsity Baseball team ended its season with a 5-2-1 record.

The Bullpups seemed to enjoy playing long, close ball games as four of their seven games went into extra innings and all five of their games were won by one run.

The Pups opened their season by facing the Georgetown Varsity at Georgetown. The Bearcats edged out the Pups 3-2 in a closely contested game.

On April 19, the Pups opposed Butler of Louisville. In a nine inning game, which was called because of darkness, the Pups tied Butler 4-4.

The Pups annexed their first victory of the season by defeating St. Xavier 5-4. Flaget then handed them their second loss of the season by setting them back 13-4.

The Bullpups copped their last four games of the season by defeating Georgetown 7-6, St. Xavier 5-4, Flaget 8-7, and Butler 8-7.

Freshman Baseball

Due to the large number of boys who turned out for baseball, New Albany High School for the second consecutive year was represented by a Freshman Baseball team.

The Pups opened their season against Eastern. In a double-header, they defeated the Eagles 3-1 and 5-2.

In their next encounter, the Pups faced Kentucky Military Institute. They won over the Cadets 3-0 in a close game.

The Frosh made it four wins in a row as they again defeated KMI. They rolled up their largest score of the season by downing the Cadets 13-8.

The Freshmen met with their first defeat of the season when they lost to Holy Trinity of Louisville 6-2. Holy Trinity seemed to be a Nemesis to the Pups as the Frosh were again defeated 4-1 in their last encounter of the season.

The Frosh ended their season with a commendable 4-2 record.

Golf

With three returning lettermen, the NAHS golf team, coached by Floyd Henry, turned in a season record of 5 and 5. Several new golfers turned up this year, indicating much promise for an even better team for the 56-57 season.

Starting with a successful meet, the Dogs beat Providence, a bitter rival. Winning the next game over Eastern, the Dogs then met Providence and Atherton in a dual meet, beating the Pioneers and losing to Atherton. Flaget handed the team its second defeat, and Manual, another Louisville school, nosed out NAHS for the third loss.

The linksmen then came back to beat Silver Creek. In the SIAC the Dogs placed seventh in a field of 13.

Eastern, seeking revenge, beat the Bulldogs, making the record 4 and 4. After beating Silver Creek the second time, the linksmen went on to place ninth in a field of 19 in their sectional.

With eight veterans returning next year and with the ability shown this season, the team should be a coming state threat.

Gene Middaugh eyes the ball as he gets ready to tee off during a meet.

Mr. Henry and Mr. Thrasher instruct Tony Bacon, Donnie Sutton, George McCutcheon, and John Howell on how to address the ball.

Tennis

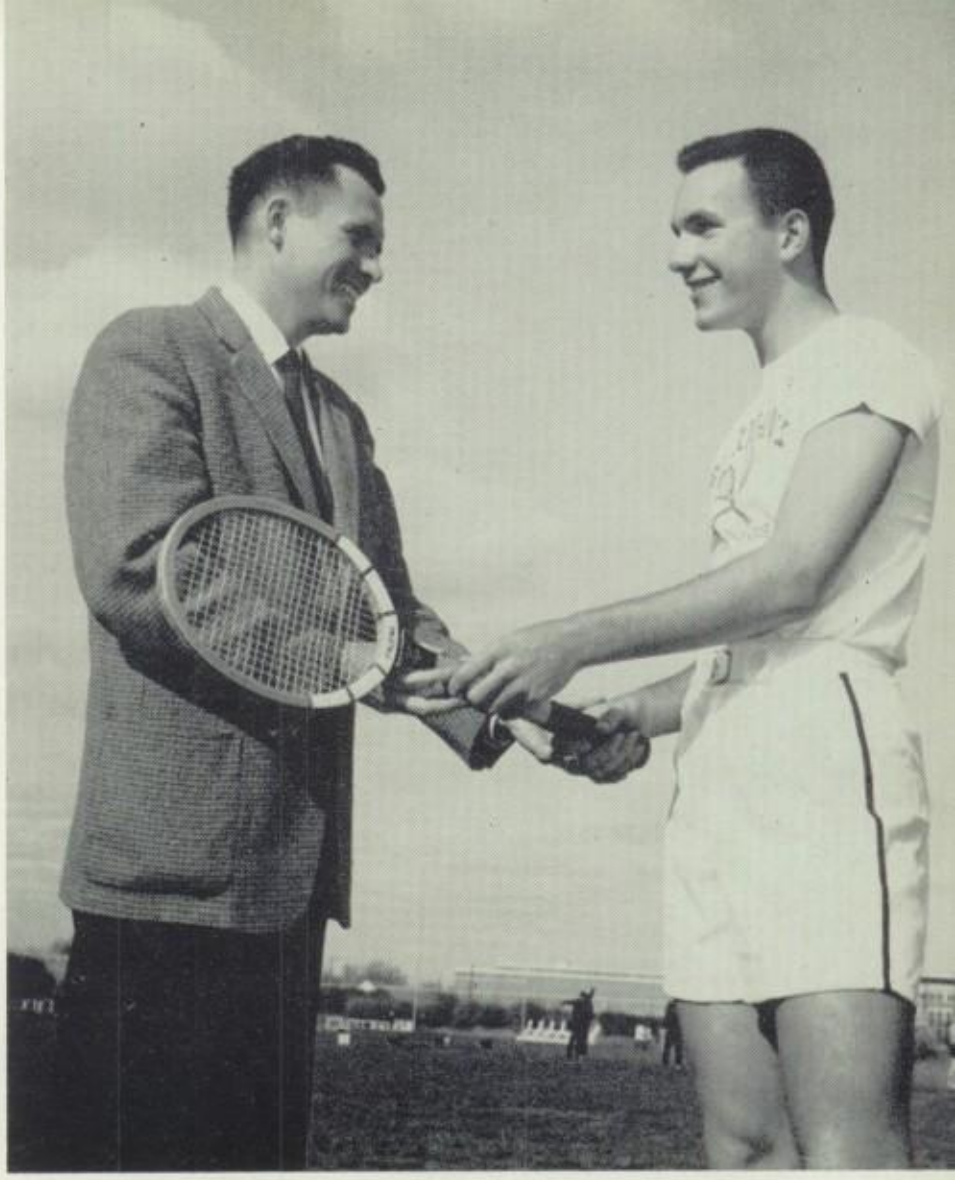
New Albany's first tennis team in the history of the school ended its season with a record of two wins and six losses. The record was credited to the fact that it was the first year for the sport.

The initial match and also first defeat for the Bulldogs was a contest with Central of Louisville on March 21, which Central won 6-0. The Dogs lost to Bloomington, April 13, 5-1. New Albany dropped its third match to Male of Louisville by a score of 6-0.

The following week, the racquetteers lost to St. Xavier of Louisville, 5-2. Central again defeated NA, April 24, 5-2.

The losing streak ended when the team was defeated by Atherton of Louisville, 6-1.

New Albany went on to win its last two matches against Holy Trinity of Louisville and Bloomington. Holy Trinity was defeated 6-0, and Bloomington was downed 4-3.



Coach Wardell shows Bill Ryall the correct way to hold his racquet.

The winning team in our rifle sectional consisted of Walter Stewart, Jim Baker, Russell Ford, and Jack Bott. Standing are Coaches Harley Francis and Ivan K. Gates.

Rifle

The Rifle Team turned in an excellent winning season. The first match of the season was against Male High School. The Bulldogs defeated them 1860-1808.

The Bulldogs then won three in a row by defeating Central High of Deposit, New York; Montgomery Blair High of Silver Springs, Maryland; and Amherst Central of Snyder, New York. Will Rogers High of Tulsa, Oklahoma, out fired the Dogs for their first defeat of the season.

New Albany then defeated Lincoln High of Tacoma, Washington, by forfeit and lost the next match to Covington Rifle Club of Covington, Indiana, 1879-1730. The Dogs then won two more matches as Elmhurst High of Fort Wayne and Indianapolis YMCA forfeited to them. In their next match, the Dogs defeated Logansport YMCA 1875-1389. The Fort Wayne Rifle Club also went down in defeat as they forfeited to the Bulldogs.

The winning team of the sectional was Captain Russell Ford, James Baker, Jack Bott, and Walter Stewart. The team compiled a score of 742 out of 800. In the state matches, New Albany took first place in the non-military schools, and the team won over Louisville in the national matches.

James Baker, Jack Bott, Bill Tischendorf, Gene Sommerville, and Leonard McWilliams earned varsity letters. An excellent team is expected for next year as only two seniors, Charles Barker and Captain Russell Ford, are lost by graduation.

Underclassmen

It has been said that the four years a student spends in high school are the best years of his life. Two of these years are spent as an underclassman, one year as an in-between, a junior, and the big year as a senior.

The freshmen at NAHS wasted no time in giving their class a treasury as they won the $100 prize money for magazine sales this past fall.

Sophomores and freshmen joined forces and held their spring dance with the aid of their Student Council representatives.

The junior class shows promise of being quite a successful graduating class. There are four of their number with a perfect "A" record, indicating that the class is academic minded.

The Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the junior class, was held on the Steamer Avalon and due to much planning and hard work by the class was quite a success.

The flag pole is one of NAHS' most popular meeting spots. Wilma Snook, Thresa Stacer, and Barry Smith, freshmen, discuss assignments.

Some underclassmen students seem to be taking the long way to their classes.

A well-known quartet is the Debutunes. The members are Charlene Rush, Betty Weber, Judy Dyer, and Judy Wardrip.
